BGI announces 6% pay increase; accidental insurance coverage

On Monday, Oct. 1, 1973, a 6% across the board wage increase went into effect for Blue Grass Industries personnel in Carlisle, Mt. Sterling, Paris, Cynthiana, and Maysville. This is the fifth blanket increase is as many years.

The pay increase averages 16 cents per hour. This brings the wage scale in the six plants to an average of $2.60 per hour, with a base rate of $1.75 per hour.

Before leaving on a world tour of apparel manufacturing concerns in mid-September, Wayne Shumate, president, advised the personnel of this increase. In making the announcement, Shumate cited "the high rate of operator efficiency for keeping the firm on top of a highly competitive market."

On Oct. 1, Donald Haney, administrative assistant to the president, also announced the addition of Christmas Eve as a paid holiday. This brings the total of paid holidays annually to nine, plus a birthday appreciation day off with pay.

Also, the company recently purchased a $10,000 accidental death and dismemberment policy for each employee, with an option plan which will cover the entire family.

Mental Heatlh Symposium at Georgetown College

The Bluegrass West Comprehenative Care Center, of which the Nicholas County Mental Health Center is a branch office, will co-sponsor a symposium Oct. 16-19 at Georgetown College, Georgetown.

"Human Sovereignty: A Goal for the Year 2000" will be the theme of the symposium, which will feature several general sessions and about 40 workshops.

Approximately 60 persons from across the United States will take part in the program, discussing subjects ranging from the formation of a food co-operative to acupuncture.

Georgetown College is a sponsor of the symposium, along with Bluegrass West. Approximately 1,000 persons are expected to attend.

The keynote speaker will be Sri Chinmoy, who is the Dag Hammerskjold lecturer at the United Nations. The conference is dedicated to Mr. Hammarskjold, who served as secretary general of the United Nations from 1953 to 1961. Speakers at general sessions will include the director of the Langley-Porter Neuropsychological Institute in San Francisco; Dr. Joseph Kamiya, an economic consultant in private practice in Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Mary Keyserling, and a Kentucky poet, author and professor of literature at the University of Kentucky, Wendell Berry.

Workshop leaders will be drawn from a variety of fields, including state government, medicine, psychiatry, education and law enforcement. Included also are several housewifes. Dr. John Parks, Frankfort, psychiatrist for Bluegrass West, will lead a workshop on biopsychosynthesis.

Headquarters for Bluegrass West is Frankfort. Branch centers are located in Carlisle, Cynthiana, Paris, Georgetown, Lawrenceburg and Versailles.

The Nicholas County Mental Health Center is located in the courthouse.

NCHS forms Science Club

The Nicholas County High School Science Club is a new club this year. The two main objectives are to educate students toward science professions and to improve the school grounds through landscaping. If anyone is interested in volunteering their services or ideas, please contact Mrs. Michael Dotson. Finances are a problem, but the club feels certain that the community and county will help since the school is a part of Nicholas county.

Perkins announces Head Start funds

Rep. Carl D. Perkins announced that a grant of $230,954 has been approved for a Head Start Program in seven counties of Eastern Kentucky.

"The funds are for 220 children who participate in the Head Start Program, and also for training 58 adults to work with the small children," Rep. Perkins said.

"This is a very worthwhile program—it gives the children an opportunity to get a good start on their education, when they begin school," he added.

The counties covered by the grant are Bracken, Mason, Fleming, Robertson, Menifee, Bath, Nicholas, and Montgomery.

"This program, based on legislation I originally sponsored in Congress, exists in many of our other counties in Eastern Kentucky, and I will cointue to work to see that it improves and expands," Rep. Perkins said.
