

Nursing Home news

By Mrs. Virginia Smith Donovan

Great expressions of the love of God come often in little ways... Edith Shea said that Mary Burns... Donahue said his tenant, Herman Cannon, fell and broke his hip, later he fell again and broke his other hip, then his wife, Mildred, broke her hip. Two people with three broken hips seem like he had had'n't seen her for 50 years.

Today I received a letter from my Leamin, Ohio daughter, Sue. She said she wished I'd write the last letter again as for her dog, "Charlie" tore it up before she got to read it all.

Today I received a letter from my Leamin, Ohio daughter, Sue. She said she wished I'd write the last letter again as for her dog, "Charlie" tore it up before she got to read it all.

Mary Craig of Sharpburg, Route 2, was to have visited her mother, Mrs. Serrell and close neighbor, Mrs. Elizabeth Hickory.

Mrs. Joe Sapp (Vivia) came in to visit us for a short while, said she and her husband, Joe, were on their way to visit her mother, Mrs. Serrell, at the local hospital.

My last letter from Louisville said they were getting back to normal since the Shearer's recent fire. Ronnie said she had sent Scott to school one day for her getting so restless in a hotel room.

Mrs. Edbel McCarty's daughter and husband, Ben and Wilma Donovan, sent her a pretty purple violet and it's really Purple.

The weekly worship service was conducted Monday afternoon by Rev. Sugg and Rev. Rice. They sang morning. It made me think of the old song, "The Old Time Religion." There were about 20 present.
