First Baptist Church to have special guests

On Sunday, Oct. 28, at 11 a.m. the First Baptist Church will have as their special guests Miss Phyllis Atkins, Miss Phyllis Catlett, Miss Elaine King, and Harold Graham from Georgetown. Each one is a major student at Georgetown College. Miss Atkins and Miss Catlett give a dual recital for their first year last spring with Miss King as their accompanist. Mr. Graham has served as music and youth worker during his years at Georgetown. The group will present a short musical program preceding the sermon.

Baptists start mission program

"First Day of School" was the theme for a mission program at First Baptist Church on Oct. 17 to open the church year's first mission program. The Baptist Women and Baptist Men cooperated in presenting the program which focused on Rhodesia. Mrs. Dan Rice, W.M.U. Director, and Raymond Bruce, Brotherhood Director, shared the overall responsibility for the program. Mrs. Eugene Neal, Baptist Women's president, served as principal of the school. She directed the choral program in the sanctuary. Mrs. Ophel Hamilton gave the devotional and called the roll. Miss Ernestine Eads led the group in a Geography lesson in which she discussed the country of Rhodesia. She was assisted by Mrs. James Eads. Mr. and Mrs. Clara Fitzharris served as the music teachers for the school. They taught the group to sing "Heavenly Soldiers" in the Shona dialect. Estal Noffsinger, serving as the History teacher, gave a background of Rhodesia as it relates to Southern Baptist mission work. Mrs. Robert Coutney served as the dietitian with food being furnished by various students. At the conclusion of the evening's program Rev. H. Dallas Sugg installed all of the officers of the Woman's Missionary Union and Brotherhood.

Forest Retreat added to National Register

Senator Marlow Cook reported Thursday in Washington that the National Park Service had added the Forest Retreat Farm and Tavern near Carlisle to its Register of Historic Places. Cook added that list is maintained to identify properties worth preserving.

NOW FROM "DAIRY QUEEN"*

TRICK OR TREAT

DAIRY QUEEN

Trick or Treat Dairy Queen

Hey kids! Now participating DAIRY QUEEN stores are giving a free "Dennis the Menace" Trick or Treat bag to every kid who wants one—no purchase necessary.

So hurry down to DAIRY QUEEN where it's no trick at all to enjoy triple thick shakes, banana splits, sundaes, and lots of great treats. Get your Free Trick or Treat bag at DAIRY QUEEN, Halloween Headquarters.

Available now. Hurry—supply is limited.

KIDS:

- Bring all your treats home for inspection before you eat them.
- Step only on lawns in your own neighborhood where the porch lights are on and you know the residents.
- If you wear a mask, take it off while you are walking and crossing streets.

PARENTS:

- Make sure your child's costume is non-flammable, short enough to prevent tripping, and decorated with reflective tape.
- Accompany younger children.
- Give your children flashlights to carry after dark.
- Welcome "Trick or Treaters" by turning your porch lights on.
- Give out only wrapped or sealed treats.
- Light pumpkins with flashlights instead of candles.

Happy Halloween from DAIRY QUEEN!

"Eat, drink, and be scary."
