FFA holiday turns into dance because of rain by Jerry Crouch

The Nicholas County Future Farmers of America and the Future Homemakers of America had planned to have a hayride on Oct. 13, but it rained all day. They then decided to have a dance in the Yo-Ag shop. One of the members brought a tape player in and set it up so that we could have the music and everything turned out good.

With a million talk about the benefits of Vitamin E, are there any studies which indicate this claim is true. Yes. Studies at such institutions as Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City, the University of Manchester in England, Duke University School of Medicine in Durham, N.C., and the University of Toronto in Canada produced no benefits in angina patients. Also, the Federal Drug Administration has found that no amount of Vitamin E is effective for use in a disease.
