Annual Rotary district meeting

Members of the Carlisle Rotary Club and their wives have invited to Cumberland Falls State Park April 3 and 4 to attend the annual conference of the Kentucky Rotary International. Dr. S. Evans Brown, newly elected president of the Carlisle Rotary, and Mrs. Brown will attend.

More than 200 persons from the 40 clubs in the district, which is comprised of the eastern half of Kentucky, are expected. District Governor Eugene Siler, Williamsburg, and Host Club for the conference are Sonneret, Corbin and Williamson.

Principal speakers on the program are George Aronson, Houston, 1.A. special representative of the president of the Kentucky International, Dr. H.C. Gabbart, Nashville, Tenn., president of Belmont College, and Mrs. Doby McNeill, mayor of Paducah.

District officers will be elected and reports of standing committees will be given during the business session.

Methodist Women to meet Tuesday

There will be a general meeting of the United Methodist Women of the Carlisle United Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 9.

This will be a potluck dinner. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Billy Davis, who will give a message on "The Church in a World of Change".

Women of all Methodist churches in the area are invited and urged to attend and help Mrs. Davis.

Christian Church is scene of Cord-Boots wedding

Stephan Paul, Lexington, served as best man. Ushers were Gary Boots, brother of the groom, and Naval Garrett.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. W.H. Bunting Jr., aunt of the bride. The guest book was attended by Mrs. Charles House, sister of the groom.

A reception was held in the assembly room of the church immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. James McNeill and Mrs. Marshall Cox served as hostesses.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robby are residing at Clay Manor Apartments, Carlisle.

Jr. Woman's Club sponsors Bicentennial Community Food Sale on April 13

All citizens are urged to participate in a Community Food Sale for the benefit of the Nicholas County Bicentennial Committee sponsored by the Carlisle Junior Woman's Club.

This project will enable individuals as well as groups, who feel they are too small to undertake a project of their own, to share in the efforts of the Bicentennial Committee to provide the people of Nicholas County with a memorable celebration of our county's 175th anniversary and our state's 200th anniversary.

The food sale will be held Saturday, April 13 beginning at 10 a.m. in the courthouse yard (in case of unfavorable weather the sale will be held at the Kentucky Utilities yard).

You are invited to donate homemade items such as cookies, candies, cakes, pies, breads, jams, jellies, etc. If you or your group would like to participate in this endeavor, please call Mrs. Harry Hudson, 288-3871 or Mrs. James Noll, 288-5909 for more information.
