

Keep blood safe . . . donate

If someone in your family is in need of a supply of donor blood, you can be assured that blood will be available for transfusion if necessary. If transfusion is prescribed, you can rest comfortably in the belief that the blood is of the safest possible quality. Contrary to popular opinion, blood is not necessarily available on demand. It is transfused as prescribed, not even brought to you, your family member or doctor. As a fact of this resource, you can help provide an adequate supply of safe blood for you, your family member and community by joining the Nicholas County Blood Donor Program and donating a pint of blood annually. The Blood Donor Committee has established a quota of 250 units of blood to be donated annually to maintain a adequate blood supply for the residents of Nicholas county. Currently, only 79 pints of blood are being donated, the annual mobile and

April—clean-up month

Mayor William Power and City Council members have joined with the State of Kentucky in asking all citizens to practice April as "Clean-up Month." Board of Health Monday that everyone do his part in making a cleaner community in which five- governor Wendell Ford recently declared that "all citizens, individually and collectively, through their municipalities, schools, educational and religious groups, with the continuing operation of the radio, television and television, and all other means of communication, are urged to cooperate in a yearly endeavor known as the "Clean-up Month." The Carlisle Mercury wholeheartedly endorses this worthwhile activity of our part of our local and state governments. We urge all Nicholas County residents to exert effort and care, so that our community may always be a clean and beautiful place for those who live and work here, as well as for visitors from other states and countries.

Agree or Not

After a local radio station broadcast her project, she was literally deluged with assistance and a project that began in her kitchen became a major undertaking, with one unannounced delivery of 1,000 Easter bunnies to help bring happiness back to children forced to witness death and destruction on a national scale.

WORKING TOGETHER, WE CAN DO A SUPER-JOB

The Carlisle Mercury wholeheartedly endorses this worthwhile activity of our part of our local and state governments. We urge all Nicholas County residents to exert effort and care, so that our community may always be a clean and beautiful place for those who live and work here, as well as for visitors from other states and countries.

MERCURY VALUERS

With the thermometer hovering at 84 Sunday morning it is may have been cooler elsewhere in the county, I had some difficulty finding a cooler. It was just the right warmth. All due no doubt to the lovely warm days of the preceding week.

liven things up with midgets, elephants, dancing pigs and anything else you can get your hands on. Then Saturday, Kay and I latched the upper set, also with the self-propelled mower and on the riding mower which does its best work in tall grass. Everything was going fine until I tried to rise into "the area along the water edge. I didn't have the blade engaged, for which I'm thankful, but the next thing I knew in reverse and the gear box was being damaged.
