Youth Week being observed by Baptists

Sunday, April 14, marked the opening of the annual observance of Youth Week at First Baptist Church. During this week each year the youth are spotlighted in a special way. Several different activities are planned during this special week of emphasis on youth.

The week began with the Baptist Student Union Choir from Morehead State University as guests for the morning worship service on April 21. A program of contemporary music by the choir and soloists was interspersed with congregational participation, scripture reading, and a personal testimony of Horace F. Marshall Jr.

The worship service was preceded by a breakfast and fellowship with the choir as guests of the youth of the local church. During the fellowship a visual aid program of activities on MSU Campus was presented, as well as a panel presentation of college life situations with an emphasis on how Christians may react to these situations.

On Wednesday, April 24, the youth from the church attended a concert at Morehead State University's Laughlin Field House. The concert featured Andrew Cowich and his Exquisite Caguch is billed as the Nation's Top Soul Singer.

Thursday evening, April 25, will find the youth meeting at 7 p.m. to consult with the adults whose advice they will be filling during the Church Training and Sunday School hours on April 28. After the individual conferences the youth will have a time of games and fellowship activity plus a time for choir rehearsal.

A "Pillars Party" is planned by the youth leaders for the youth on Friday evening, April 26, at 7:30. All members of the congregation have been requested to bring pictures of themselves made in the fifties to be used for decorations.

The adult leaders of the two youth departments are Tom Metcalfe, Gayle Kelley, Huey Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kimberling, Mrs. Robert Cooney and Mrs. Opal Hamilton. The Youth Committee for 1974 is chaired by Miss Judy Hunter with Willie Jefferson, Renee Allison and Tim Dudley as members. This group coordinates all youth activities for the year with the total church program.

Army First Lieutenant Harold R. Letton Jr., 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Letton, Route 1, Carlisle, assumed command of Headquarters Detachment, 720th Military Police Battalion at Ft. Hood, Texas.
Lt. Letton's wife, Patricia, is with him in Texas.

Car mishap Saturday
Deputy Sheriff Renee Amyx of Bourbon county reported a two-car accident which occurred Saturday afternoon on the Millersburg-Cynthiana Road.

A car driven by Charles S. Crump, 44, of Lake Garrison, rounded a curve and went over the center line, sideswiping a car traveling in the opposite direction and being driven by Gary B. Radway, 24, Cynthiana, Route 4.

Deputy Amyx said the Radway car swerved to the right and ran off the road, scraping a fence at the roadside. No one was injured.

"Electric cooking means a cleaner, cooler kitchen!"

The clean energy, electricity simply can't make dirt. And a today insulated oven keeps your kitchen cooler. Electric cooking makes wise use simple cook whole meals in the oven where every bit of heat works at peak efficiency. Low watt surface units to hold temperature when liquids begin to boil.

Let countertop appliances spell your range surface units now and then. Your electric fry pan, sautepan or broiler generally use less electricity to cook the same foods.

Good to know isn't it that efficient cooking is so clean, cool and delicious too.
