

Six unassigned sections...

Only six county sections remain unassigned out of a total of 23 to be researched and written for "The History of Nicholas County."

If you are willing to help in this worthwhile community project, you may do so by calling Mrs. Joseph H. Conley, 288-242.

Family history deadline stressed

Family histories were discussed extensively at last history meeting last week. Guidelines for writing these histories were established (page one of today's Mercury) and the deadline of Dec. 15 is stressed.

That your family history be submitted to the section editor, Mrs. James Hill, before Dec. 15.

Pastors are human, too

There is an old saying that "the grass is greener in the other man's yard." Meaning, of course, that by the way it appears to be. Only when you get up close do you see the weeds, crab-grass, and other pesky nuisances that are painfully obvious in your own.

Such a view is all too often taken of the "man in the other pastor's shoes." The preacher or the priest. Surely he lives a life of tranquility and ease. As a man close to God, he doesn't have all the problems of ordinary mortals—like one, for instance.

Dairy Foods Live a Meal, say 44ers
Looking for delectable, refreshing assured their efforts will not go in vain. Providing that assurance is the Try dairy foods, say young people involved in the 4-H dairy foods program.

Nothing is more delicious or nutritious say these 44ers, than a tall, cold cream float, lemon custard, or a tasty dip for snacking. Or try a main dish meal, like macaroni and cheese to enjoy dairy foods and to help conserve the family budget.

These and scores of other dishes use dairy products, and 44ers in the 4-H dairy foods program, as well as their parents, are well equipped in preparing these and their mouth watering recipes.

Sponsored by Carrington Company, young people in the program also learn how to make their own butter and cheese. Informing young people and others in the community about the benefits of dairy foods and how to prepare different dishes are among the activities of the program.

44ers perform in a number of ways. In fact in calcium, protein, riboflavin and other nutrients. Dairy products can brighten a meal and do it economically, too.

Carrington Company provides incentive and recognition to young people in the 4-H dairy foods program. Up to four medals of honor are offered to county winners, and an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29, goes to a winner in each state.
