Consumer comments

by Ed W. Hancock
Attorney General of Kentucky

'Tis the season to be . . . wary! During the holiday season, consumers spend a great deal of money. Take care that your money is spent wisely and beware of common holiday frauds.

This year, someone may try to take advantage of your yuletide spirit by sending you merchandise that you haven't ordered in the hopes you will be pressured into paying. Under Kentucky law, you do not have to pay for or return unsolicited items, unless you have received them by mistake. Unordered merchandise may be treated as a gift and disposed of as you like.

Temporary storefronts or sidewalk booths have been known to appear during the holiday season, make their sales and quickly disappear before unhappy consumers return with inferior, damaged or worthless goods. No one is around to exchange these products or give refunds. Deal with reputable businesses and be cautious of new sales outlets that suddenly appear during holiday time.

Beware of "free" gifts. Consumers have complained to our office that they have received letters notifying them that they were winners and had won free vacations or free products. The catch was that they had to pay a reservation fee or a fee for administrative costs. Many consumers never received the products or vacations. If a free gift also means you have to pay fees or buy something else at an inflated price, it's not free!

Don't be fooled by a phony charity. If you receive a phone, mail or door-to-door solicitation from a charity you've never heard of before, take the time to check its authenticity. Don't feel you have to make a contribution on the spot. Instead, ask for literature about the charity and information on how they distribute the funds they collect. Always ask for identification from the solicitor.

If you have any consumer problems, write the Attorney General's Office of Consumer Protection, the Capitol, Room 34, Frankfort, Ky. 40601. Kentucky residents may call, free of charge, on the Consumer Hotline, by dialing 1-800-372-2960.

4-H Streakers elect officers

The 4-H eighth grade Streakers met Friday, Dec. 6. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Sara Elmer. The election of officers was held with Tim Dudley, president; Doug Tedder, vice president; Ricky Hunt, secretary; Tony Smith, reporter; Brenda Asbury and Dwaine Williams, song and game leaders.

The 4-H books were distributed and then the meeting adjourned.

Auction

Auction of a good 58-acre Clark County farm, household furnishings, some antiques, farm machinery and livestock. Located about 3 miles east of Winchester, Ky., just off Highway 11, on Saturday, December 14, 1974 at 9:30 A.M.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Peck are leaving the state and have authorized us to sell their property. The farm has been improved with a lovely one-floor plan home, which consists of a large living room, 2 bedrooms, den, dining area, large bath, kitchen with built-in range, oven and dishwasher. Other desirable features include lovely cabinets, hardwood floors, new water tank, basement, and electric heating. Other improvements consist of a 4-bent barn and a large garage. This farm is well located, being about 3 miles from Winchester, Ky. Most of it is in grass, is well watered, having some of the best springs to be found anywhere, and there is a tobacco quota of 1,930 lbs. for 1974.

The following personal property will be sold: Many, many household items including some same-as-new, refrigerator and freezer appliances, some antiques, farm machinery, Tennessee Walking mare, a bull, cows, calves, hens, and hay.

This will be an all-day sale. Come and spend the day with us. Lunch will be available.

Dr. Lyman V. Ginger, Kentucky superintendent of public instruction, took these photographs during a recent two-week stay in the U.S.S.R. He was one of 12 educators selected for the education delegation sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education and the U.S. Department of State to visit Russia between Oct. 19 and Nov. 3, 1974.

Ginger said that he was most impressed by the attention given to pre-school children. Beginning when they are one-year old, the children go to a state-operated nursery school while both parents work. The nursery schools have bedrooms, recreation programs, doctors, nurses, dentists and teachers aids.

At the end of the eighth grade, each child must pass an oral examination given by three teachers. Then he has three choices: to go to work, to vocational school or to high school. If he goes to work, he is sent to vocational school for another 3½ years by his employers. Everyone is expected to complete the equivalent of a high school education.

Two UK Colleges ranked in top five

For the second year in a row the College of Dentistry and the College of Pharmacy at the University of Kentucky are ranked among the five most outstanding schools in the nation within their own fields in a survey of 1,181 deans of professional schools.

The deans were polled by two Columbia University sociologists, who made the first survey a year ago, and who report the results of their second survey in the December issue of "Change," a magazine devoted to news and issues of higher learning published in New Rochelle, N.Y.

The sociologists, Peter M. Blau, director of the Comparative Organization Research Program at Columbia (CORP), and Rebecca Z a m e s Margulies, this year found UK's dental school ranked third in the nation. Last year, the UK school tied for third place.

Ranked first and second among dental schools this year, the same as last year, are the University of Michigan and the University of North Carolina.

The UK pharmacy school this year ranked fourth in the nation, up from a tie for fifth place last year. The University of Wisconsin pharmacy school, which was ranked fourth last year, now appears in seventh place. The University of California at San Francisco, Purdue, and Ohio State finished first, second, and third in the voting.

Blau and Margulies based their data on the collective judgments of the deans in each of those fields of study who responded to questionnaires sent to them by CORP. As in last year's survey, the deans were not asked to rank the schools but simply to list the five they consider best in their field, and the rankings are based on the number of deans who mentioned a given school as one of the best.

Seventy-nine per cent of the deans polled responded to this year's survey, compared to 36 per cent a year ago.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By Clet R. Pollan

Note planetary ruler of your birth symbol

FOR WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY, DEC. 16, 1974

If your birthday occurs this week . . .

. . . you strive to make a good impression, and are usually successful in doing so. You need and like people and handle others in an adroit, amiable manner. Strongly attracted to the opposite sex, you tend toward impulsive love affairs. Sometimes you are too easily influenced by others.

Aries Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 Pluto

This week is favorable for everything except new friendships and romance. In your work, a friendly discussion with a superior would pay off. If you have developed a matter connected with your home moves in your favor. Hold off on making trips.

Taurus Apr. 20 - May 20 Venus

Someone new in your life may prove to be a little more than you can take. A temperamental person may try to pressure you. Don't allow it. Put this person in his/her proper place. It's a time when unexpected visitors will throw home routine out of gear. Forget disturbing gossip you've heard recently.

Gemini May 21 - June 20 Mercury

You could take some action now that would bring an end to a romance or even marriage. Selfishness must be submerged or you will come out the loser. A psychic impression may be amazingly accurate. Good news may reach you. Act on it at once. Don't tamper with defective machinery or appliances.

Cancer June 21 - July 22 Moon

Keep all work neat and accurate, check everything closely before releasing it. Your special hope is expected. You may find loyalty where you least expected it. Do not press a business matter or try to solve a domestic tiff. Harsh words could lead to swift actions, so be careful what you say.

Leo July 23 - Aug. 22 Sun

This is a time for silence and caution in handling anything remotely dangerous. It's not a good idea to air complaints or even question other individuals. Stay near to your usual base and follow routine strictly. Avoid making a promise that could be difficult to carry out. Patience pays off.

Virgo Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 Mercury

Look ahead with pleasure to a trip you may take soon. Visit people you love and whose company you enjoy. Travel is under fortunate influences, especially if accompanied by a youngster. If you depart, make sure you are taking the inexpensive route. Danger lurks in dark places. Travel in the daytime.

Libra Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 Venus

Taking time off during the week for solitude, minor tasks, reading, writing personal letters and grooming musts, is a good idea. Romantic serenity and emotional security are starred favorably. Your responsibilities may seem too heavy. Take things one at a time. Use spare time to finish a prolonged project.

Scorpio Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 Mars

This is a time to put your skills to practical use. All work related to writing and communication will be benefited. Love relations as well as business partnerships are accented. A quarrel can be bitter and bring a loss of prestige. Accidents are possible. Make sure transportation facilities are safe.

Sagitarius Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 Jupiter

A new relationship could start around this time and will be very important to your future. Romance needs a shot in the heart and this is the time to do it. Cultivate the company of people from distant places. A mystery concerning an associate will be cleared up. Ask no advice. Be brief with all.

Capricorn Dec. 22 - Jan. 19 Saturn

Generally good aspects. Shop, find bargains in small items, indulge a whim or two about clothes. A talk with asbusiness associate may produce a new opportunity. Keep a check on what youngsters are up to. Try a new system for budgeting your money - you'll save more. New contracts will prove fruitful.

Aquarius Jan. 20 - Feb. 18 Uranus

This is a time when friends may well set a bad example, lead you into extravagance because of their irresponsible attitude. Older people may not approve of your behavior. A plan you've worked on may meet with temporary disapproval. Don't pay unless you have checked either goods or work.

Pisces Feb. 19 - Mar. 20 Neptune

Do not rush anything, even though you feel some need to do so. At your place of work, don't complain and be cooperative. If things lag, crack the whip, strictly. Avoid making a promise that could be difficult to carry out. Patience pays off.

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions—horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle then strike it off list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big word's first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.
