Community Worship Service Dec. 29

The Nicholas County Ministerial Association will present an informal worship program at First Baptist Church on Dec. 29, 8:30-9:30 a.m. The program theme will be "Things I Would Like to Leave Behind." The youth from the various churches will present the program which will consist of short speeches and music.

To prepare for the program the youth will meet for a week session at 8:30 a.m. on Dec. 28 at First Baptist Church. They will meet for approximately two hours and will have a sandwich supper at Carlisle United Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m. Various congregations will help supply the meal.

ST. NICK RESTORED
When Queen Victoria married German Prince Albert, Christmas visits of St. Nicholas (and the gift-giving) came back to England—three centuries after Henry VIII had banned the tradition when he broke away from the Catholic faith and formed the Church of England.
