Rare flowers, nature's beautiful ruggedness, and the merging of the plant life of North and South, that is the Red River Gorge. So the Senior Scouts of Troop 170 found out from John Varner, a Harrison County biology-teacher and naturalist at Red River Gorge.

teacher and naturalist at Red River Gorge.

In his slide presentation Mr. Varner showed us the abundant wildlife, rare flowers, and the awe inspiring arches and great cascading water falls in the Red River Gorge.

The Red River Gorge caught us in its spell and we hope to visit it during the summer.
