Kay's Kitchen

— — By Kay Fisher

To start the year out right I'll try to answer the requests received before the Christmas holidays.

The sweet potato recipes will be useful now since they go well with pork which is especially good in the winter.

LOUISIANA SWEET POTATOES AU SHERRY

1 cup sugar
¾ cup water
½ teaspoon salt
5 sticks cinnamon
10 whole cloves
8 whole allspice berries
6 medium sweet potatoes, cooked, peeled, and cut in 3-inch slices
¼ cup sherry

Combine sugar, water, salt, cinnamon, cloves, and allspice; heat to boiling over medium heat and cook 15 minutes. Remove spices and add sweet potatoes and sherry; heat to serving temperature. Yield: 6 servings.

SWEET POTATO CASSEROLE

2 cups mashed, cooked sweet potatoes
½ cup light or dark corn syrup
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon salt
dash ground nutmeg
dash pepper
3 egg yolks, well beaten
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Combine sweet potatoes, corn syrup, lemon rind, salt, nutmeg, pepper, and egg yolks. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Spoon into an ungreased 1½-quart baking dish. Set dish in a pan and fill pan with hot water almost to top of dish. Bake at 350 degrees until knife inserted in center of casserole comes out clean, about 1¼ hours. Yield: 6 servings.

SPICY SWEET POTATO CASSEROLE

½ cup sugar
2 teaspoons cornstarch
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/8 teaspoon ground cloves (optional)
1½ cups mashed, cooked sweet potatoes
¼ cup dark corn syrup
3 tablespoons margarine
2 eggs, slightly beaten
¼ cup pecan halves
1 tablespoon melted margarine

Combine sugar, cornstarch, salt, and spices in heavy saucepan. Mix in sweet potatoes, corn syrup, and 3 tablespoons margarine. Bring to boil over medium heat, stirring occasionally. Boil, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened, about 3 minutes. Remove from heat. Gradually stir sweet potato mixture into beaten eggs. Pour into greased 1-quart casserole dish.

SWEET POTATO PIE

1½ cups mashed, cooked sweet potatoes or 1 (1-pound) can vacuum-packed sweet potatoes, drained and mashed
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup evaporated milk
½ cup dark corn syrup
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 tablespoons melted margarine
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground nutmeg
¼ teaspoon ground ginger
1 unbaked 9-inch pastry shell

Beat together first 10 ingredients until smooth and frothy. Pour into pastry shell. Bake at 425 degrees for 15 minutes; reduce heat to 350 degrees and continue baking about 45 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Yield: one 9-inch pie.

Variation: For a Pecan Sweet Potato Pie, add 1 cup pecan halves to filling before baking.

VINEGAR PIE

1 cup sugar
⅓ cup flour
1¼ cups boiling water
⅓ cup cider vinegar
1 tablespoon butter
2 eggs, separated
¼ teaspoon salt

Mix together flour, sugar and salt. Add boiling water, butter and vinegar. Cook until thick. Remove from fire and stir in quickly 2 beaten egg yolks. Cool. Turn into a baked crust and cover with meringue made from the 2 stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake until brown—about 20 minutes.

This Vinegar Pie recipe is a very old one. A delicious Lemon Pie can be made by the same recipe, using the juice of 2 lemons (⅓ cup).—Marie Flora

The two following recipes are for Vinegar Pudding and from a very old cookbook (1888) called "The Cook Book" compiled by "The Ladies of The Presbyterian Church," Paris, Ky.

VINEGAR PUDDING

Six eggs, three tea-cupfuls sugar, one tea-cupful butter, one table-spoonful strong vinegar diluted with one of water, three table-spoonfuls flour, a half tea-spoonful soda, three or four drops of oil of lemon. This quantity makes four puddings.

ANOTHER VINEGAR PUDDING

Four eggs, four table-spoonfuls butter, three cupfuls sugar, four table-spoonfuls flour; vinegar to taste.

Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Layson entertain Garden Club

The meeting of the Carlisle Garden Club Thursday, Dec. 20, was a fitting climax to the year's programs.

With the snow falling, the setting was a perfect Christmas picture, and so suited for the loveliness within the homes.

Throughout each home, were beautiful arrangements of greenery and lighted candles. A focal point in each was the stairway. They were decorated with garlands of holly, with red bows on the newel posts.

Mrs. H.W. Bailey's home was visited first. From her table covered with a white lace embossed cloth, over red and centered with a green arrangement with red candles, she served assorted sandwiches, spiced tea and coffee.

While guests, seated around the log fire in the fireplace, enjoyed the refreshments, Mrs. Bailey played Christmas music on the organ.

Mrs. William Layson used a pink motif in her dining room. There was a pink poinsettia on either side of the doorway, and her table was centered with a pink blooming plant with pink candles in silver candelabra.

She served individual fruit cakes, coffee, and the traditional eggnog.

Background music of carols from the stereo added to the spirit of the day.

Twenty members, and one visitor, Mrs. A.B. Crouch enjoyed the hospitality of these two Garden Club members.
