Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

Had you then the letter box I have come up with these recipes and ideas. Only a few of many, but they do seem appropriate for this time of year.

Before Christmas I had a request for a recipe for German Sweet Chocolate Pie. Since the column had already been written for the month of December, and I didn't have time to try out the recipe I'd couldn't publish it then. However I'd give it to Mrs. W. R. Hustin Jr. and she reported the pie to be delicious but rich. So when serving, be kind to yourself and your guests and make the pie less small.

GERMAN CHOCOLATE PIE. package 4 squares German Sweet Chocolate. 1 1/4 cups sugar. 1 1/4 cups evaporated milk. 1 1/4 cups cornstarch. 2 eggs. 1 teaspoon vanilla. 1/2 cup chopped pecans. 1 unbaked 9 inch pie shell.
