As yet no one has reported that he or she has any more "Keep Baker" editions of Helen Steiner Rice. I dropped a little book of Christmas poems by Helen Steiner Rice in Mrs. Henderson's room and her daughter, Mrs. Harold Letson, found it and sent it to my room. I use so many different things when I write the news, really need a suitcase to put all my material in. The book to hand in was...

I always heard it was lost but to get married on Friday but Carol Leadenberg was married Friday, Jan. 4, at 7 o'clock by Rev. Harold Rice at the Carlisle Christian Church. She is now Mrs. Timmy Sarna.
Dorothy Watkins and Mrs. Grace Leaded were off, not in the head, but off from work for several weeks. I never did find out just what was wrong with them. Dorothy belongs to the nursing department and Mrs. Grace to the housekeeping department. Mrs. Dorothy Watkins visited one day but Dorothy is now working. They are good workers and we are glad to have them back in the "harem" again.
Mrs. Blanche Fuller Cameron is a new recruit in a retired teacher. I remember her when I taught in Nicholas county. She's a native of Myers Station. I'm sure everyone at the home enjoys her company to the family of Mrs. Mary Eliza Ockerman. Two of her children, Inez and Chester went to school with her daughter Ethel Smith works here.

lived with us was invited to eat with one of the neighbors, Mrs. Sodie Martin, who served jello. Grandpa said it made him shake and he said when he got up the next morning he was still shaking. This was at Mt. Carmel.
I hope much news is collected for the Nicholas county history. Some of the Mt. Carmel families that Miss Clara gave information about I know economically as one food item.
—Use the maximum amount of water when cooking so it can heat quickly. Remember, too, that water comes to a boil quicker in a covered pan.
—Vitamin C as well as other vitamins, minerals, and flavonoids can be lost through improper cooking of fruits and vegetables, therefore, don't overcook them. Most is too valuable for its protein, iron, and B vitamins to waste any of it. General rule in retaining juice and preventing shrink-
