Jr. Woman's Club submits list of artists for Sidewalk Art Display

Artists who will attend the Sidewalk Art Display on Saturday, June 29, are Cliff Johnson, Nellie Meadows, Philip May, Larry May and Wendell Mosely.

According to Mrs. Jimmy Dan Anderson, president of the Carlisle Junior Woman's Club (GFWC), the sponsoring group of arts and crafts, Weavers of Louisville will attend on Wednesday, June 26.

The club is also sponsoring the Kentucky Bicentennial Art Exhibit all week at the Nicholas County Library.

Local students who will display art on Saturday are Debbie Fryman, Patty Burke, Patty Fryman, Ann Kingsolver, Kathy Samples and Hugh Wilson.

Mrs. Anderson stated that there is a possibility of someone doing portraits on Saturday.

The club has ordered 500 additional packets of artist note cards. The note cards will be sold all week long at the Hospitality Center. All proceeds during the week from the note card sale will be donated to the Nicholas County Historical Society.

Cadette Girl Scouts plan historical hike

The Carlisle Cadette Girl Scouts will sponsor an historic hike along the Buffalo Trail on Thursday, June 27, beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the Old Stone barn at the corner of U.S. 68 and the Barterville Road. The entire trail is 11.6 miles to Blue Licks. It will pass the Barterville store for refreshment. Those planning to hike are advised to wear comfortable hiking shoes (no sandals, please), bring lunch, and a canteen of water.

To shorten the distance on Thursday, after an explanation of the historic buildings around the meeting point, they will pool cars and travel to Barterville where only a seven and one-half mile portion of the trail will be hiked to the end, at Blue Licks State Park. Cadette Troop 168, Mrs. John Smoot, and Dr. and Mrs. W.R. Kingsolver will lead the hike.

Everyone is invited to go on this bicentennial expedition.

Homemakers meet June 13

The East Union Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Raymond House on June 13 at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. William Dampier, president. Devotional was given by Mrs. House, using Romans 14. Roll call by secretary, Mrs. Keith Bell, was answered by a proverb or saying we had heard.

Minutes and treasurer's report were given by the secretary. There were nine members present. Reports from Reading chairman, Mrs. Mattie Kate Guthrie, also a report on landscape and hints for our gardens were given. Final plans for Bicentennial were discussed.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Dampier on "Food for the Traveling Family."

Meeting adjourned. Refreshments were served by hostess.

The club will meet in August at the City Lake for our annual picnic on our regular meeting day, August 15, 7 p.m.

Nicholas County home in Sharpsburg tour

One of Nicholas county's historic homes was a part of a tour of local Sharpsburg homes Sunday, June 16. The house, known as Carter's Store and built in 1832 is located halfway between East Union and Sharpsburg on the Lower Sharpsburg Road. The house is currently owned by James W. Lowe. Other homes which were on the tour in the Sharpsburg locality include those of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Crouch and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson Sr.
