

Three blocks of Main Street in downtown Carlisle as it looks this Anniversary year

Coming into Carlisle on Main Street, The Nicholas County Jail, right, is located on corner of West Main and Elm Streets.

Continuing on Main Street from Locust to Broadway, Locust Street divides East and West Main.

From Broadway on out East Main, Carlisle merchants have remodeled almost all businesses in the main section of town in recent years.

Carlisle's West Main Street starting at the corner of Locust Street and looking toward the Carlisle Cemetery.

Carlisle's East Main Street at the corner of Broadway, The Nicholas County Court House square is opposite.

Congratulations
Nicholas County

Remember when . . .

—Photos by Ernest Soebly
We had a noon day steam whistle and "White Rose" Flour...

This was your playground...

We thought years ago this bridge would not make it until we got across...

"Dusty" Wilson and "Uncle" Joe Mathias...Turkeys, Rabbits, Cream.

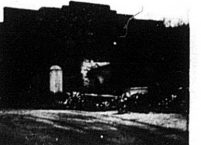

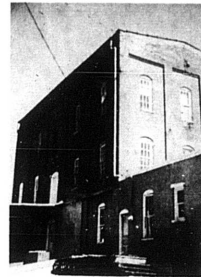

We rushed home with the ice before it melted...

Rails were loaded with lumber, gas, hardware, coal...

We went to Mathers Woods for a picnic...

Carlisle had tobacco warehouses... one of the few remaining walls now being torn down...

Congratulations Nicholas County on your 175th Birthday, we've enjoyed growing with you!

We are proud to be growing with Carlisle-Nicholas County in this 175th Anniversary Year

Under the skillful fingers of a village seamstress . . . the symbol of a Great Nation was born . . .

Under the skillful fingers of a pioneer weaver . . . the homespuns of yesteryear were created . . .

1948 - 1974

Under the skillful fingers of highly trained sewing machine operators . . . a great company was born . . . and has grown.

1966 - 1974

Under the skillful fingers of highly trained technicians . . . a rainbow of knit fabrics was created . . . and is manufactured.
