Kay's Kitchen

Here we are again ready to celebrate 4th and as always, a natural for a cook-out. Since most everyone has had hamburgers all through the year, why not try barbecued chicken. Get your original crowd together and let everyone help with the cooking. It takes an hour and a half to prepare and have one half chicken for each one. If the children go for barbecue, have legs and thighs for them. Naturally they will get done first. Good, then serve the children and when they are satisfied you are enjoying your meal more.

Baptist Church in Indiana claims record

The "Largest Sunday School in the World" is the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Ind., according to a recent survey by Christian Life Magazine. The Sunday school attendance jumped an average weekly attendance of over 1,000 last year. This extraordinary growth has been accomplished through an aggressive Sunday school ministry and active door-to-door visitation, according to the pastor, Dr. Jack Hyles. The church now enrolls over the world's largest feet of church boys which bring approximately one-half of the attendance to the services.
