The Carlisle Kindergarten recently made its annual trips to the Carlisle Fire Department and Nicholas County Elementary. Kindergarten is sponsored by the Carlisle Junior Woman's Club.

Medical auxiliary announces Fair itinerary

The Women's Auxiliary to the Fayette County Medical Society will sponsor their annual Antiques Fair again this year, to be held May 14, 15, and 16, at Floral Hall, Lexington Trotting Track.

Furniture dealers will display quality antiques, including furniture, china, works of art, silver, oriental rugs, and jewelry.

A Preview Cocktail Party will be held on the evening of May 13, from 7:00 to 10:00. Guests for the occasion will be the first to see the display of antiques and will sample gourmet hors d'oeuvres prepared by Auxiliary members.

On May 14 at 10:30 a.m., a lecture entitled "Survey of American Brass, Copper, and Iron before 1800" will be given at Tattersall's Barn by Charles Hummel, Curator of Henry Francis DuPont Winterthur Museum, at Winterthur, Del. At 12:00 noon, following the lecture, there will be a luncheon at the Red Mile Club House, open to anyone who wishes to make a reservation.

Beginning Collector's Night will be held on May 15 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Punctuated that evening will be a lecture by Mrs. John Tuska entitled "American Quilt." Refreshments will be served, and a door prize will be given.

On May 16 at 10:30 a.m. Henry Schiess will speak on the topic "The Art of Collecting."

The hours for this year's Fair will be from 11:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. on May 14, and from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on May 15.

The Antiques Fair is the chief fund-raising project of the Auxiliary. Profits are used to give scholarships to deserving students in various health or allied health fields.

General admission tickets, which may be purchased at the door, are $2.00. This price includes admission to all three lectures and the program for beginning collectors, as well. Preview Party tickets are $15.00 and give open admission to the Fair.

Persons wanting tickets may write to Mrs. Donald Eder, 408 John Alden Lane, Lexington 40504. To make reservations for Tuesday's luncheon, call Mrs. William McRoberts at 406-265-048.

Chairman of the Antiques Fair this year is Mrs. Stephen Schandler. Chairman is Mrs. Joseph Hamburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Haffin are serving as honorary chairman.

Preacher absent

While waiting for the preacher to arrive for a prayer meeting, these "ladies of the Church" conduct their own meeting. From left, Mrs. Bonnie Cummins, Mrs. H.A. Dowsy, Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. Wilmer Hancock, Mrs. Russell Shrew, Mrs. Grimes Caywood, Mrs. H.C. Blount

Blue Grass Industries, Inc.

Thoroughbreds of 1974

The Blue Grass Thoroughbred Service Club is composed of all personnel who have given 15 years or more of loyal service to the company. There are 122 active members from Blue Grass Industries' five locations.

Each year Blue Grass Industries sets aside a day to honor those Thoroughbreds and welcome new members to the Club. This year May 7, was designated THOROGBREDS DAY. Fifteen new members, 11 of them from the Carlisle branch of the company, were presented with the official blue Thoroughbred blazers, and wrist watches. Thirteen members, eight of whom are from the Carlisle plant, received gold blazers and toured all company facilities by chartered bus on May 7 in recognition of completing 10 years of service.

Two Thoroughbreds were recognized for having been with the company for 25 years. Each was awarded a silver tea service and a white blazer.
