Democrats now on spot

Following the overwhelming Democratic sweep of national and state offices, Sen. Hubert H Humphrey notes that, "If we don't perform we're going to be in trouble. The American people want performance. We're on the spot."

Although that might be small comfort for Republicans who were swept out of office in every section of the country, it remains true that the burden of defeat has now largely been placed on the Democratic Party. Inflation, unemployment, and the legacy of Watergate were enough for voters to carve up the GOP with a vengeance.

To The Carlisle Mercury: I am seeking information on William and Sarah Kinrough Barlow who according to an article I read co-owned with Daniel Boone in Kentucky. Sarah Kinrough's father (I don't know first name) also came to Kentucky from Virginia. William and Sarah were married in Kentucky and one Daniel Boone Barlow was born in Nicholas county. Two other sons were born in Nicholas county. Please let me know of any information you have and Thank you.

Thursday, November 14, 1954: Construction of the remainder of East Main Street this week, all of the first concrete road in Nicholas county now opened to the public. The first snow of the season fell Sunday, although it melted almost as rapidly as it fell. Numerous dry weather which has prevented tobacco coming into case, very little tobacco has been shipped in Nicholas county.

Nursing home news

Mrs. "Billie" Weathers had quite a surprise Sunday. First, Matthew Campbell came from Carlisle, Bruce Campbell came from Palomont, then her brother J.R. Campbell came from Versailles. I asked about Bruce's health and how well they were doing. He said they had nursed on him, should have put them in the pot or dished. J.R. brought her a big bag of trash. It was really good to see him once more brother, Joe who works for the government, builds highways, has been in India. Came from somewhere in the Middle East. His pretty wife was with him. Her name is Louise. He met her in Virginia. Louise, Joe, and "Billie" went to town and brought her back with dresses and everything that goes with them. She will not have anything to keep her attending church now.
