Why not disseminate your ideas?

How easy is it for you to have your ideas disseminated to your fellow citizens through your local newspaper, The Carlisle Mercury?

National Newspaper Week is Oct. 6-11. Therefore, we thought we'd present a few answers to this question as "food for thought" concerning your local newspaper.

You can write a letter to the editor. If you avoid libeling people, don't give arguments with false information and sign the letter, chances are excellent that your letter will be printed. You can mail, bring or phone information to the Mercury about a meeting, an activity, a social item, etc. You can bring in a good photograph or request that one be taken.

Nursing home news by Virginia Donovan

Mr. Matthew Webb is a new worker here, works in the office. Herman Coyers hasn't been feeling well, but he'll be better soon, on his daughter, Mrs. Clara McKee of Savannah, Ga. is visiting him. Mrs. Mae Booth has been very generous with her convalesces, brings them ready to eat. All we have to do is chew and swallow.

I have been to see my daughter, Rosalie Shearer and family of Louisville. While it was a visit to my cousin, Cleora Hopper Wick and an old roommate, Mrs. Christine Coggage over. I talked over the phone to Sara Kelly, sister of the late Mrs. Sara Willis. She sent greetings to all her friends, especially Miss Clara Shearin. I believe Miss Clara and Mrs. Willis lived in the same house up on Sycamore Hill.

Harshel Dampier said his brother, Elmer, was now home from the hospital. One day Clarence Pepper came in there. There was a little boy on the one side and a little girl on the other side. They were his grandchildren. He has two more. I think I have seven nice grandchildren. Shirley Ritchie has a new baby, she looks like a new baby. She's too big looking "Tommy" might trade her for an "older" model.
