YOU AND YOUR HEALTH

WHAT DOES A DOCTOR LOOK LIKE? Dear Dr. Rose: What's your opinion of a good doctor should look and act like?

I'm writing this note while still in bed after a heart attack. As I've said and recovering it's a natural but I adore my doctor. I think he's the greatest man who ever lived. So I've been thinking of this man who saved my life.

On the other hand, one of the worst practitioners of the healing art (both in ability and ethics) looked like people think a doctor is supposed to look: neat, nondescript, impeccable clothing and distinguished bearing.

Good bedside manner without basic medical strength is worthless: But effective in spite of 'external appearance' is not so important to 'look like a doctor'—whatever that means.
