Frankfort. They also know that engineers, road builders and contractors are going to contribute more to the man in Frankfort than the man in Washington. Cook is not in a position to give the work, but Wendell Ford has, and has been doing quite a bit of that. They also may be contributing for past favors.

Part of Ford's contributions may be more for Carroll than for Ford. If Ford wins the Senate race, Lieutenant Governor Julian Carmona for a full year as acting governor for Ford for a full year term. This has to be a big advantage.

So, why all of this uproar about where the money is coming from?

The latest financial reports filed in Washington show that Ford has collected about three times as much money as Cook. At least Ford has spent about three times as much as Cook. The report shows Cook has spent $18,000 and Ford has spent $56,000.

What are all of the charges and counter charges about on spending and where the money comes from? Are they trying to say that the opposition candidate is being bought? One by out-of-state interests and the other by in-state interests? If that is what they are trying to prove, just look at the figures above and make up your own mind.

I don't believe the people are going to buy this argument. Neither candidate has been able to establish many prime issues in this campaign. The only issue controversy has been about the biggest issue raised to date, the one really dogging the real issues facing the people of this nation today.

The economy and taxes are the real issue that the people would like to hear about, along with what the candidates propose they will try to do about them. It's quite obvious they don't know what they can do about the economy for they simply aren't offering any solution. Rightly so, for President Ford's brain trusters are not kicking the problem around and they haven't arrived at any solution yet. The President is supposed to announce some sort of program this week, and then maybe the Senate candidates will take a stand, for or against the President's proposals.

House Minority Leader Harold DeMarco is calling upon Governor Ford to call a special session of the legislature to send the surplus state money for the benefit of the people. DeMarco wants Ford to ask the legislature to ask for a reduction in the state income tax for the lower income brackets and he wants to increase the sales tax.

He also wants the Governor to take the additional tax events on the gasoline tax that was put on at the governor's request. DeMarco doesn't want a special session to allocate the money for more spending because he says the legislature as it is now constituted is controlled by the governor.

But anyone ought to know that the governor certainly isn't going to call a special session a month before the election because that would be the perfect forum for DeMarco and other Republicans to get in their campaign speeches for the Republican candidate. Besides, that would take the governor out of the campaign trail for at least two weeks and he certainly doesn't want to do that at this critical stage of his tenure.
