Guardsmen eligible for retroactive pay

Maj. Gen. Richard L. Frymire, Kentucky's adjutant general, has announced that individuals who were guardsmen during the Oct. 1 to Dec. 31, 1972, are eligible for a retroactive pay increase.

Individual former National Guardsmen (Oct. 1 to Dec. 31, 1972) may make a claim at the nearest National Guard unit. The unit will forward the claim letter form to the Adjutant General's Office for verification.

Frymire encourages individuals to apply at their former unit, if distance is not a factor.

Dependents or beneficiaries of deceased guardsmen, who would have pay due, may apply for the difference, according to the general.

Retroactive pay for current guardsmen, who were guard members during the pay increase period, will be processed automatically by their parent unit.

State could get liquefaction plant

Kentucky still has a chance at getting a federally funded pilot model coal liquefaction plant located in the state, according to Senator Marlow Cook.

Cook said the Office of Coal Research informed him Aug. 30 that it was awarding a contract for a firm to design such a plant to test the commercial potential of a process it has developed for converting coal to synthetic crude oil.

OCR is considering three sites for such a pilot plant, including Kentucky. Cook added, and final selection is imminent. On Aug. 22 the senior Kentucky Senator wrote the Secretary of the Interior and again urged that the Commonwealth be the final choice.

The federal agency said it could be ready to advertise for bids for construction of the plant as early as within nine months.

Tobacco penalty rates announced

Penalty rates for excess marketings of quota tobaccos during the 1974-75 marketing year were announced Monday by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The penalty rates (in cents per pound) are Burley, 70; flue-cured, 66; fire-cured (Type 21), 57; fire-cured (Types 22 23, 24), 54; dark air-cured, 46; Virgin a sun-cured, 52; cigar-filler and binder (Types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54, 55), 44.

The Agricultural Act of 1938, as amended, provides that marketings of Burley and Flue-Cured in excess of 110 percent of a farm poundage quota are subject to penalty. For the other quota tobacco, the Act provides that marketings of these tobaccos in excess of that which can be produced on the allotted acreage are subject to penalty.

Kay's Kitchen

— — By Kay Fisher — — —

In the fall whether the weather be warm or cool it seems to be cookie time for school children coming home for that all important after school snack. Keep plenty on hand for friends too. The recipes given here will really save time because there is no rolling and cutting. Just pour into pan and cut into desired shapes. Squares, diamonds or bars.

LEMON SPICE DIAMONDS

¾ cup shortening
1½ cups brown sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
½ teaspoon shredded lemon peel
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup quick cooking rolled oats
½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans

In mixing bowl, cream shortening, brown sugar, and vanilla till light and fluffy. Add eggs, lemon peel, and juice; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, and spices; add to creamed mixture. Stir in rolled oats and nuts. Spread in greased 13x9x2 inch baking pan. Bake in 350 degree oven 20 to 25 minutes. While warm, top with "Lemon Glaze". Combine 1¼ cups sifted confectioners' sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, and enough milk to make glaze consistency. Cool; cut into diamond shape.

CHOCOLATE-DATE BARS

½ cup butter or margarine
½ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1½ cups sifted flour
¼ cup sugar
1 tablespoon milk
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
2 eggs
1 cup finely snipped dates
½ cup chopped pecans

Melt butter or margarine with chocolate; stir in the 1½ cups flour, the ¼ cup sugar, and the milk. Pat in 9x9x2 inch pan; bake in 350 degree oven 10 minutes. In mixing bowl, combine the ½ cup sugar, the 2 tablespoons flour, and the baking powder. Add eggs; beat till fluffy. Fold in dates and pecans; spread over chocolate layer. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes, cool. Cut into bars.

CARAMEL PECAN BROWNIES

½ cup vanilla caramels (about 12 caramels)
2 tablespoons milk
2 eggs
¾ cup sugar
½ cup butter or margarine, melted
½ teaspoon vanilla
¾ cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped pecans

In small saucepan, cook and stir caramels and milk over low heat till caramels are melted; set aside. Beat eggs; gradually beat in sugar. Blend in butter or margarine, caramel mixture, and vanilla. Sift together dry ingredients; stir into caramel mixture. Fold in pecans. Pour into 9x9x2 inch pan. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees 20 to 25 minutes. Cool; cut in bars.

The two following recipes I have not tried, but were sent to me several years ago. I'm like Mrs. Hicks they don't sound very good—but you never can tell. She says they are good. Be brave and try them sometime and let me know. K.F.

CHOCOLATE SAUERKRAUT CAKE

½ cup butter or margarine
3 eggs
½ cup cocoa
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup water
1½ cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2¼ cups flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup rinsed and drained kraut

Cream butter with sugar, beat in eggs and vanilla, sift dry ingredients together. Add alternately with water to egg mixture. Stir in sauerkraut. Turn into greased and floured 2 loaf pans or two 8" round pans. Bake at 350 till done. Frost with your favorite frosting.

TOMATO SOUP CAKE

2 cups flour
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup seedless raisins
1 cup sugar
1 can (1¼ cups) condensed tomato soup
1 tablespoon baking powder
½ teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon cinnamon or mace
½ cup shortening
2 eggs, well beaten

Sift flour, baking soda and spices. Wash and cut raisins and roll in small amount of flour mixture, cream shortening, add sugar gradually, then eggs. Mix well, add flour mixture alternately with soup, stir well till smooth. Fold in raisins. Pour into two greased and floured 8" pans or two loaf pans. Bake at 350 degrees about 30 minutes or till done. Frost with your favorite frosting.

I'm from Bath county, so maybe you will print these recipes. Sounds terrible but they're good really. If printed send me the paper they're in.

Yours truly,
Nettie B. Hicks

Miss Kay Earlywine weds Roger Shepherd Sept. 13

Miss Brenda Kay Earlywine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Earlywine of Millersburg, and Roger Dean Shepherd, Boulder, Colo., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Shepherd of Millersburg, were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 13, in the Carlisle United Methodist Church in the presence of families and close friends.

Rev. Richard Chamberlin officiated with the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pink floor length gown with empire waistline, and a maroon velvet jacket trimmed with pink ruffles matching the gown. She wore a maroon velvet Camelot headpiece with a pink veil. Her bouquet was yellow roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Kenneth Gill of Manchester, Ohio, aunt of the groom, was her only attendant. She wore a light blue gown with long sleeves, trimmed with ruffles at the neckline, sleeves and hemline. She carried a pink long stemmed rose with baby's breath and pink and white streamers.

Kenneth Gill served as best man. Kevin Zachary served as acolyte.

Mrs., Shepherd is a graduate of Bourbon County High School and has been employed by the State Chest Hospital of Paris.

Mr. Shepherd is a graduate of Bourbon County High School, University of Kentucky, and is presently employed as engineer with I.B.M.

The couple will make their home at Apt. 210, 5150 Williams Fork Trail, Gun Barrel Meadow Apts. in Boulder, Colo.

'Forward America' president speaks to Jr. Club women

Mrs. James D. Anderson, Mrs. David Zachary and Mrs. Paul Hardin, attended the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs Fall Board of Directors Meeting and Conference at the Lexington Hilton Inn, Sept. 10 and 11. Mrs. Donald Dammert, president of KFWC, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Anderson, president of the Carlisle Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Zachary and Mrs. Hardin began their participation in the conference with registration and attendance at the opening session of the conference dedicated "Ring the Bells—Tell the People." The KFWC theme for the year is "Ring the Bells of Freedom."

Mrs. Zachary, as Family Living chairman of the Home Life Department of KFWC, was included on the program of the opening session.

During the buffet luncheon which followed the morning's proceedings, music was provided by Rich Bellando, Phil Conn and Company. Robert Sylvanik, Administrator of Cardinal Hill Convalescent Hospital spoke to the conference.

Carlisle's three delegates then attended the Junior Clubwoman's meeting. Plans of work, club goals and helpful ideas were discussed with an emphasis being placed on those children in our own communities with specific learning disabilities. A program will be initiated in Carlisle on this subject immediately, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hardin, along with several members of the Community Woman's Club of Carlisle, attended a banquet in Keeneland Hall in conjunction with the conference. The guest speaker was Ed Wimsher, National President of "Forward America, Inc." His topic for the evening was "Woman Power—the Destiny of America."

Mayor Foster Petit of Lexington also made an appearance at the banquet. A bicentennial musical program was presented by the Covington Art Club Chorale.

Following a reception at poolside, Mrs. Hardin attended Junior Fun Night at which a Junior Clubwoman's Chorus was formed to perform at the KFWC 80th Annual Convention in April at the Bluegrass Convention Center in Louisville.
