Local School Board announces policy for free meals and milk, reduced meals

The Nicholas County Board of Education has announced its policy for free meals, free milk, and reduced-price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served in schools under the National School Lunch Program and/or Special Milk Program. Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility:

FAMILY SIZE AND INCOME SCALE FOR FREE MEALS, FREE MILK AND REDUCED PRICE MEALS EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1975

Family Size	COLUMN 1 Free Meals and Free Milk if income does not exceed	COLUMN 2 Reduced Price Meals if income is from
1	$ 3,220	$ 3,231	$ 4,520
2	4,340	4,341	5,930
3	5,250	5,251	7,350
4	6,350	6,261	8,770
5	7,190	7,191	10,060
6	8,110	8,111	11,360
7	8,950	8,961	12,530
8	9,790	9,791	13,700
9	10,550	10,551	14,770
10	11,310	11,311	15,840
11	12,060	12,061	16,880
12	12,810	12,811	17,940
Each Additional Family Member	$ 750		$ 1,050

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free meals, free milk or reduced-price meals. In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with hardship conditions due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a letter to parents. Additional forms are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wish to apply for such meals and milk for them, they should contact the school.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his race, sex, color, or national origin.

Under the provisions of the policy the school principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official he may make a request, either orally or in writing, to Donald G. Elder, Superintendent, whose address is Main Street, Carlisle, Ky., for a hearing to appeal the decision.

The hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the Superintendent where it may be reviewed by any interested party.

In service

Second Lieutenant Daniel B. Manley, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Manley, Route 1, Sharpsburg, completed a Medical Service Corps officer basic course at the Army's Academy of Health Sciences at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Students received training and orientation in military law, unit administration and management, medical supply principles, preventive medicine, and certain emergency medical care procedures.

Mrs. Virginia Kingsolver, president of the Wilderness Road Girl Scout Council, presented Mrs. Julian Carroll with a plaque in appreciation for her help with Council Fund Drives. Mrs. Carroll served as General Fund Drive Chairman in 1974 and 1975. The plaque was presented at a luncheon at the Governor's Mansion for the local fund drive chairmen from communities across the Council's 57 county jurisdiction.

When you think of pests, think of me.

I can get the termites out of your house. And the ants, cockroaches, spiders or mice. And keep them out. I can get any pest out of your house (except maybe your in-laws).

Youth to lead Worship Service

The Carlisle United Methodist Youth Fellowship will have worship service responsibilities this Sunday at 10:45 a.m.

Their responsibilities include the choir and special music, ushering and the order of worship. Miss Cay Pruitt, Youth Worker, will have a special guest "Wilbert" for the children's sermon.

The pastor, Rev. Richard Chamberlin will have the sermon: "Youth Engaged in Service" and will install the officers of the Youth Fellowship. A special dedication to the church will be made by the Youth Fellowship.

Donald J. Bloomquist

Southern States names director

Donald J. Bloomquist, who has been assistant director of the Information-Publications Service of Southern States Cooperative since 1970, has been named director of the department. He succeeds the late William M. Corwin, who died unexpectedly Aug. 2.

A native of Minnesota, Bloomquist joined Southern States Cooperative in March 1955 as radio and tv advertising representative. In August 1967, he was named manager of retail advertising, a position he held until January 1970 when he was named assistant director of the department.

Prior to joining Southern States Cooperative he was sales promotion manager of the eastern division of Ennis Business Forms Company at Chatham, Va.

He is a graduate of North Dakota State University and is a former editor of the Pittsylvania Tribune at Chatham, and of the Monticello Times at Monticello, Minn.

He is a member of the Advertising Club of Richmond.

Morgan, Clarksville, Ind.; Mrs. Ella H. Dixon, N.H.E. Nursing Home, Lexington; Mrs. Cecil (Louise H.) Sanders, Lexington; and Mrs. James (Dorothy H.) Gillispie, Paris.

Others attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Clay L. Morgan and family, Gainesville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Totish (Glenna Morgan) and daughter of Clarksville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Anderson (daughter of Emma H. Blount) and daughter of Cincinnati; Mrs. W.R. Blount Jr. and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wells (Juanita Withers, daughter of Martha H. Withers) and family, all of Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Dixon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sharp (Mary Jo Dixon) and son, Mrs. Henry (Myrtle) Sims, Mrs. H.C. Withers Jr. and two daughters, Miss Cathi Withers, and Mrs. W.R. (Helen P.) Blount, all of Lexington;

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sanders and family, San Diego, Calif.) Mr. and Mrs. Ralph (Judy Withers) Burris and family, Nicholasville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry's children were all born in Carlisle and lived there until May 1924 when they moved to Lexington.

Church services resume Sunday

After a vacation period, regular activities will be resumed at the Carlisle Presbyterian Church on Sunday, Aug. 31. Church school will be at 9:30 a.m., and morning worship at 10:45 a.m.

Dr. S. Evans Brown, pastor, will have for his sermon topic, "Work: Curse or Blessing?"

Volunteers to call

Volunteers for the Breath of Life campaign will call on their neighbors during this week, Aug. 25-30, reminds Mrs. Judy Scott, local chairman.

Contributions to the annual Breath of Life campaign will help support a national network of over 100 Cystic Fibrosis Centers, such as the one at the University of Kentucky Medical Center.

Dr. Constantine Curris, president of Murray State University, accepts from Harry Lee Waterfield Sr., a gift for the University Library of a copy of Robert A. Powell's "This Is Kentucky", an album of line drawings and text which were commissioned by Investors Heritage Insurance Company. The presentation was made at the Central Kentucky Alumni Club meeting held recently in Frankfort. For further information, contact: John C.
