Say You Saw It In The Mercury

CARD OF THANKS: Who would welcome their 80th birthday? I didn't. My oldest son decided to do something very special for his old Mom. He also decided she had a few friends here. So he asked them to do all the work. They surely did a wonderful job by having just what it takes to make an 80th birthday complete. Friends, flowers, decorations, a lovely cake, delicious punch, gifts, money. (When I came to) I realized a few things. I surely did feel honored. Especially the kind words from my beloved minister. Everything was so much appreciated, I felt honored far beyond what I deserved. I thank each one present, those that could not be present. Thanks to my children and to those who worked so hard. Thank God for such friends. You have to live 80 years to appreciate these blessings. Thank God. Elizabeth Neal.

Col. Eben Henson writes and produces 'Lion of White Hall'

Col. Eben C. Henson bears a striking resemblance to portraits of the elderly Casslus M. Clay as Henson fills the starring role in his own production "Lion of White Hall." The play, written by Henson, with special music written and directed by Col. Jim Gaskin, opened Aug. 11 and plays nightly, except Sunday, through Aug. 30.

During its first week, wrinkles which are common on first-run plays have smoothed out. The depth and quality of the play has begun to come through almost with the attitude of a pageant.

Henson, with the historical assistance of Harold Richardson of Louisville, has captured the turbulent but sincere nature history has revealed of Clay. There are moments of humor in the finest style and tender moments that seem to reveal the innermost thoughts of a man so misunderstood in his own day. At times, the play almost seems like a talking history book.

Many sections are enlivened by effective use of actors behind scrims, pantomining thought sequences, with the sound on tape, and by the use of slides, shown by rear screen projection. The "Lion of White Hall" is a tricky production, and use of scrims and slides allow for special effects, providing continuity to a subject hard to present on stage.

A dynamic and moving song, "The Pioneers," written and performed by Gaskin prefaces the play, and also serves as a finale.

A total of 15 actors and actresses fill the 47 roles in the play. Members of the cast include: Don Hill, as the young Cassius; Kurt Thomsen as his brother, Brutus; Lawrence Hubbell as Abraham Lincoln; Koni McCurdy as Anna Petrovna; Norman Bennett as Stephen A. Douglas. Don Bollinger fills the role of Howard Wickliffe and Mary Helen Fisher is Clay's first wife, Mary Jane Warfield, and Michael Morrison is Cassius' cousin Henry. Others who fill roles in the 31 scenes are Holly Henson, Tammie Devine, Susan Tymensky, Marie Hardin, James Warren and Heather Henson.

The All, New LONGHORN WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP RODEO and its Salute to The Bicentennial will open Cincinnati's new RIVER-FRONT COLISEUM on Fri. Sept. 12—8 P.M., with 2 more performances on Sat. Sept. 13—2 P.M. and Sun. Sept. 14—2 P.M. Tickets are now on sale at all Ticketron outlets in The Tri-State area. For information, Call [513] 241-1818.

After seeing the play, one has the feeling of better understanding one of Kentucky's most dynamic characters, Cassius M. Clay, the Lion of White Hall. Clay was an abolitionist, newspaper publisher, duelist, Minister to Russia, and a man who did his own thing in his own time, a hundred years before the phrase was invented.

David W. Franks serves as Technical Director for "White Hall" and Christi Phelps is stage manager. Technical assistance with the slides is provided by George L. Pfotenhauer Jr., Eastern Kentucky University, and Jim Gaskin is in charge of sound.

"Lion of White Hall" plays nightly, except Sunday, through Aug. 30 at Pioneer Playhouse. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m., with dinner (optional) at 7:30 p.m.

For reservations, write Pioneer Playhouse, Danville, Ky. 40422, or call (606) 236-2747.

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions — horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle then strike it off list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.

Letters to DEBORAH WHITE

DEAR DEBBIE:

I'm married to the all-time slob of slobs. She neglects the house completely and the kids walk around in filthy clothes because she's too lazy to throw a load into the washing machine. We've been married nine years and she's gained about 10 pounds for each year. I give her plenty of money, but all we ever eat are frozen TV dinners because she watches her stupid game shows all day. We haven't made love in months because she turns me off so. I'm so disgusted I feel like moving out of the house. You've told plenty of women to just pick up and start a new life for themselves so don't tell me I ought to face up to my responsibilities like a man. To my mind, being married to an incurable slob is just as bad as being married to an alcoholic.

READY TO PACK

DEAR READY:

No it's not. Alcoholics usually can't stop without professional help, but you'd be amazed at how fast an incurable slob can clean up the house, spruce up the kids and take off the pounds when she's trying to get a husband back.

* * *

DEAR DEBBIE:

Last month I lent my best friend a good friend of mine because she was going to the hospital. Since then we've had a falling out and are not speaking. She never returned the books. Ordinarily, I wouldn't have bothered, but one of the books is out of print and I wanted to reread it, so I phoned and asked if I could pick up the whole batch. She had the nerve to tell me she left them in the hospital because it was too much trouble to take them home. I am furious about this. Do you think I would be wrong to send her a bill?

ANNOYED

DEAR ANNOYED:

Yes. Next time you lend books, be prepared to lose the book or the friend.

* * *

DEAR DEBBIE:

I had a terrible fight with my mother because I thought she had done something unforgivable. Then I found out she was not to blame, I kept phoning her to apologize, but she wouldn't talk to me because I had hurt her so much. Now I have a big favor to ask of you, Debbie. My mom reads your column religiously, so would you please print this letter and USE MY REAL NAME because I want her to know that I love her very much and I'm sorry.

MIDGE BEYLOCK

* * *

If you have a problem, write to me in care of this newspaper. Personal answers are always possible, but I'll answer letters of widest interest in this column.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By Clay R. Pollan

Note planetary ruler of your birth symbol

FOR WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY, SEPT. 1, 1975

★ If your birthday occurs this week . . .

. . . you have undue fear of losing money, love and security. Although you are beset with financial problems at times, your prudence and good sense land you on your feet again. You are sometimes stubborn and independent to a fault. Leo and Scorpio persons play a significant role in your life.

♈ Aries Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 Pluto ♇

The friendliness you show now will be appreciated and reciprocated. A welcome invitation may come from a friend to attend a party. Social and business matters can be combined with fine results. A surprise gift may be received from someone who admires you. Secrets that you hear may be false or twisted.

♉ Taurus Apr. 20 - May 20 Venus ♀

Heart-warming news may arrive from a friend who is away from home. There's a possibility of receiving cash from a distance. Your business plans may show the necessity for drastic revision. A woman friend can give you a worthwhile money-making hint. Beware of underhanded attempts by a person to trick you.

♊ Gemini May 21 - June 20 Mercury ☿

Finances are emphasized. Discuss your financial problems with an experienced person. A generous payment is indicated for a service that you have rendered. A project about which you are enthused has favorable prospects. Results from publicity or promotion can prove rewarding. Finalize a deal.

♋ Cancer June 21 - July 22 Moon ☾

Your style and personality intrigue people. You make good impressions on people, especially those in power. Your companionship is sought and people go out of their way to please you. You could be promoted and entrusted with more authority. Don't tell all you know. Keep some facts in reserve.

♌ Leo July 23 - Aug. 22 Sun ☉

A week to be careful and cautious. Trickery or deception could deplete your cash which you think is safe. Undue haste or recklessness could block your progress. Slight accidents or costly damage might occur through impatience. A young associate may disappoint or aggravate you in a money matter.

♍ Virgo Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 Mercury ☿

This week's stars should produce opportunities to attend sports meetings and other outdoor events. Your judgment of competitive figures will be extremely good. You will be very clever at spotting winners. Pay heed to "hot" tips, but don't do any heavy gambling. Make friends with those active in competitions.

♎ Libra Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 Venus ♀

The aspects of the week will incline you to give much more positive expression to your emotions and earthy urges. You'll have much to do with the opposite sex. However, do not become too deeply involved in any affair. Just play it cool and be calm. Your offering of a friendly gift can make a big hit.

♏ Scorpio Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 Mars ♂

What a week this can be! What you say or do now can be of outstanding quality and effectiveness. People will listen to you attentively and are likely to do your bidding. The fulfillment of a social wish may be possible. Warm friendships can be developed. Thanks to your charm and wit.

♐ Sagittarius Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 Jupiter ♃

Your strong sense of adventure, the urge to do things which grip you, will very much incline you towards travel. You might well decide on and organize a journey.
