couple of work sheets. Sheet I is a cattle inventory along with estimates of the feed needs of the various classes of cattle.

Sheet II is a work sheet for developing a forage inventory. The sheet is designed to emphasize the variation a producer might encounter in the usable weight of various hay packages.

By comparing the "bottom lines" of both sheets I and II a producer should develop a reasonable estimate as to whether feed needs to be purchased or cattle sold. These inventory and planning forms are available at the County Extension Office.

Dear Debbie Letters to DEBORAH WHITE

DEAR DEBBIE:

I'm really worried about my husband. He is a salesman and makes decent money, but he's never satisfied. So he has taken our three or four credit cards and every week he comes home with new articles such as a color tv or a stereo. One Friday night he showed up with a fur coat for me. Two weeks ago he charged a weekend in Bermuda for us. Now he wants to go to California! Debbie, I know we are in debt for hundreds of dollars and we can barely meet our weekly expenses. But Bill pays the minimum payment each month to the credit card companies and the interest grows and grows. He says if things get too bad he'll claim personal bankruptcy.

JOYCE

DEAR JOYCE:

It sounds like just another case of overdoing a good thing. Credit cards are a valuable invention to modern society, and, if used properly they can be a great aid in a pinch, or even a way of budgeting your money. But your husband sounds like a guy who steals an airplane and says that if it turns out he can't fly it, he'll bail out—even though he's never parachuted before, either. Anyway, he's making a great investment in the future of American business since his payments are going to go on forever.

PERSONAL TO ALICE:

Sorry I can't publish your letter, it's just a little too graphic for my purposes. I couldn't even begin to edit anything that intimate. But you've got my approval to do anything you want to as long as you don't hurt anyone else.

If you have a problem, write to me in care of this newspaper. Personal replies aren't always possible, but I answer letters of widest interest in this column.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By Clav R. Pollan

Note planetary ruler of your birth symbol

FOR WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY, DEC. 8, 1975

★ If your birthday occurs this week . . .

. . . you are independent in thought, action and speech. You believe in the truth with an almost pious devotion and can be a tremendous force for good in your world. You are in many ways a pioneer, a fighter, a doer and a champion of worthy new doctrines and lost causes. You can talk in an expressive manner.

Aries (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19) Pluto

Diseftetion must be the order of the day this week. It is in your interests to "play it cool." Don't allow yourself to get worked up about mishaps, else good judgment will fly out the window. There is definite danger you'll antagonize people and involve yourself in unnecessary conflicts.

Taurus (Apr. 20 - May 20) Venus

Make strict plans now and carry them out. Some things simply cannot be allowed to wait any longer. See things as they are, not as you wish them to be. Be much more inclined to act than talk. Don't try to do too much at one time. People who serve you are touchy and contrary.

Gemini (May 21 - June 20) Mercury

It is time to forgive and forget. Never again allow yourself to be put in an awkward position. Accent is on work and routine chores and your ability to extricate yourself from a delicate situation. Those who oppose you, admire you greatly. You can turn a fond dream into reality.

Cancer (June 21 - July 22) Moon

You may meet someone who steals your heart instantly. There is not much mutual affection here. However, you may become suddenly disillusioned and cool, anxious to escape. Relax. Just let things take their course. You'll probably receive welcome aid. You learn the lessons of life the hard way.

Leo (July 23 - Aug. 22) Sun

You've a tendency of being too liberal and generous.
