By Kay Fisher

This week the recipes will be for salads that I think are especially good and colorful to serve at Christmas time.

CRANBERRY SALAD
2 boxes of cherry gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1/4 cup cold water
2 cups of one orange
2 cups sugar
2 cups ground cranberries
1 small can crushed pineapple
1 cup finely chopped celery
about 1 tablespoon or more of orange nuts, if desired

Mix all ingredients and pour into individual molds or a large flat dish and cut into squares when ready to serve.

CHEERY SHERRY SALAD
Drain and remove seeds from a can of black cherries and stuff with almonds or pecans. Dissolve 1 package of cherry gelatin in 1 cup of hot juice from canned cherries. (You may need to add a bit of water to make 1 cup). Cool and add 1 cup of Sherry—(select a Sherry not too sweet nor too dry). When gelatin begins to set carefully add the cherries.

I usually mold this in a flat baking dish so I can add more almonds on the top and cut into squares. You can put sliced almonds in bottom of individual molds. This serves six.

PORT WINE SALAD
2 packages raspberry gelatin
2 cups boiling water
1 (No. 2) can crushed pineapple
1 (15 ounce) can whole cranberry sauce
1/4 cup chopped nuts
1 cup finely chopped celery
1 cup Port Wine
Mix gelatin and boiling water; stir until dissolved. Stir in other ingredients and chill until mixture is firm. Stir several times until mixture begins to set. Serves 8 to 10.

Now for some green color. This salad recipe I have had forever. It seems, and in my battered cookbook it is to die:

THE GREEN SALAD
1 (3 ounce) package of cream cheese
1 small can crushed pineapple, drained
1 cup (diced finely) celery
1/4 cup chopped nuts
Add 1 1/2 package of lime gelatin made with 1 1/4 cups water and the juice from the pineapple heated to dissolve gelatin. This recipe can very easily be doubled to serve more.

GINGER ALE FRUIT SALAD
1 tablespoon gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water
1/4 cup boiling water
1 tablespoon sugar
dash of salt
1 cup ginger ale
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/4 cup heavy cream, whipped
1/2 cup seedless green grapes, cut in half or diced
1/4 cup diced pineapple
