Committee formed to survey Henryville

The committee will make a survey of Henryville to find out how many residents will hook onto the sewer if the line is made available. They will also check other needs that the residents feel are necessary for the area. Others who attended the meeting were Sonny Simpson Sr., Jeanette McGuffey, Ardella Johnson, Pauletta Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Compton, and Tom O'Banion. Several representatives of the Carlisle Jaycees also attended.

The meeting was an outgrowth of the Dec. 1 public meeting held in the Courthouse where local citizens decided that Henryville sewers and other improvements were number one priority for Nicholas county.

Pitman named 'Athlete of Year' in junior year

Robert Pitman, a junior on the Tates Creek High School football team, has been named "Athlete of the Year" by radio station WYLK Lexington.
He also made the Herald-Leader All-City team and is the leading scorer in the City with 11 touchdowns. Pitman received Honorable Mention on the Herald-Leader All-State 4A offense team.
