After getting out to a slow start, Nicholas County managed to put things together just long enough to do away with the Silver Grove Trains on the Jacket's homecoming evening. The Jackets never really gained an overwhelming advantage over the Trains at any one time in the game, but they had enough of an advantage to provide 1975 Homecoming Queen, Judy Hunter, the privilege of reigning over the Jacket's eighth victory of the season.

Both teams started out the contest with a shot matching exhibition that lasted throughout the main duration of the first quarter, until when with 2:30 left in that period, Silver Grove moved out in front of the Bluejackets, 13-10. And after that lead taking score, neither team hit the bottom of the net for a score, and the quarter ended with the Jackets in the position of trailing, 13-10.

The Jackets popped in the first basket of the second quarter but only to see the Trains of Silver Grove retaliation efforts prove positive, and the Trains went out in front of the Jackets, 17-12, at the 6:16 mark in the second quarter. Then both teams hit a one and one-half minute cold spell that wasn't ended until Silver Grove connected to go out in front, 19-12. At that point in the game Nicholas County coach Billy Keen Anderson, thought it best to call a time out and talk things over with his club. The time out marked the beginning of the Jackets main offensive surge on their way to de-railing the Trains. After Gary Gray's free throws Nicholas County was back to within three points of Silver Grove, at 19-16. The tying basket for the Jackets came on Ricky Hicks' steal and goal at a, 20-20, score. After a Silver Grove basket, Doug Darbro again found the tying basket at 22 all. Then after a Joe Ruddell basket, Darbro found the basket for the go-ahead points, that ended the half, 26-24, with the Jackets on top.

Doug Darbro hit the opening basket of the second half, right at the outset of the period, giving an impression of perhaps more rippling of the twine than had been shown in the first quarter. But this was not to be the case, because immediately after a following Silver Grove basket, both went super-cold, rimming out more times than netting through. The quarter ended on a fine note when Steve Curtsinger hit Ricky Hicks with a perfect pass as Hicks was breaking to the basket, resulting in a fine score.

Neither team scored in the first minute and a half of the final quarter until Nicholas County finally sank one with 6:27 remaining in the game. Silver Grove wasn't through for the evening yet, though. With 3:13 left to go the Trains came to within four points of the Jackets and Jacket coach, Bill Anderson, decided to take a look at the situation with a little time out. The Jackets came back after this recess to hold on to their lead and end the homecoming festivities on a happy note.

Gary Gray and Ricky Hicks shared the scoring lead with 16 points apiece. Following them was Doug Darbro with 14; Steve Curtsinger, 6; Joe Ruddell, 2.

Silver Grove's scoring went like this: Remele, 15; Hedges, 12; Perkins, 10; Sparks, 5; Messer, 2.

The Jacket 'B' team under the leadership of coach, David McMillan, captured their 15th win of the season as opposed to four losses. The youthful squad had to contend with a last minute rally by the Silver Grove team, but they held their composure and won the game, 49-41.

Kay's Kitchen

— — By Kay Fisher

Whether you celebrated George Washington's birthday on Feb. 17 or are a purelst and will celebrate it on the actual and traditional date of Feb. 22, this is the week for Cherry desserts. After all, if George had not cut down that Cherry tree, we might not have so many delicious Cherry desserts.

CHERRY DELIGHT

2 large pkgs. of cream cheese
2 cans cherry pie filling
2 boxes of dream whip
1 stick butter
3 or 4 tablespoons powdered sugar
½ teaspoon almond flavoring
2 cups crushed graham crackers

Roll graham crackers fine and mix well with butter and powdered sugar to form crust. Place in long rectangular pan. Next prepare the dream whip as shown on the package, using almond flavoring and mix well with whipped cream cheese and spread over crust. Then simply open cherries and pour over cream. Refrigerate for several hours.

This is quick and easy and really better made the night before.

CHERRY PUDDING

Heat 1 can of red sour cherries with ½ cup sugar.

Melt 1 stick of margarine or butter in 1½ quart Pyrex dish. (The 7¼x13¼ size).

Make a batter of 1 cup sugar, 1 cup flour, 1½ teaspoons baking powder, pinch of salt and ½ cup sweet milk. The milk more or less to make a smooth batter, not too thin.

Pour the batter over the melted margarine, then the cherries and juice on top of batter. Do "not" stir. Bake at 350 degrees until brown, about 30 to 45 minutes. Cut in squares. Serves 8 generously.

This is good served warm with prepared whipped topping or a scoop of ice cream. If you have any left, it is good cold.

Should you want to dress this up a bit, add a few drops of red food coloring and ¼ cup chopped pecans to the cherries before pouring over batter.

• • • • • •

CHERRY TURNOVERS

For a change, let these turnovers take the place of the traditional Cherry pie.

One recipe for plain pastry rolled thin; cut in 4 inch squares.

For filling, mix together 2 cups drained, pitted sour cherries, ½ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca and 1 cup of diced marshmallows.

Roll pastry ¼ inch thick and place tablespoon of filling on half of each pastry square. Wet edges with cold water and fold over to form triangle or rectangle; press edges together with fork dipped in flour. Prick top in two or three places and chill. Bake in preheated hot oven (450 degrees) about 15 minutes.

• • • • • •

CHERRY MERINGUES

Beat 3 egg whites until stiff; add 6 tablespoons of sugar gradually beating until well blended. Add ½ teaspoon vanilla. Line cookie sheet with brown paper and drop meringue in six or eight mounds. Spread out, building up sides, leaving room in center for filling.

Bake at 300 degrees until firm about 15 minutes.

Filling: 1 can sour cherries; 1 cup sugar; ½ teaspoon salt; 3 tablespoons flour; ½ teaspoon almond flavoring. Mix together and cook, stirring constantly until thick. Chill and when ready to serve, fill meringue shells.

Homemakers' publication

Getting ready for the 1976 Bicentennial are the Extension Homemaker Clubs and its 640,000 members all over the United States. The homemakers have planned their own national publication as a tribute to the Bicentennial, and have done much of the work themselves. Entitled, Treasure Trails in the U.S.A. it will be available to the public by March 1, 1975.

This 8½"x11", 2-color publication is unique in that it will contain specially designed annotated maps of all 50 states plus Puerto Rico and Washington, D.C. Along with each state map, the book will be a brief history about the state and designated historic, geographic and economic places of interest to visit. Many of these places are not as yet well known, but worthy of attention. The book will include many other interesting things: fishing, hunting, camping information, festival dates, etc.

This book has been a joint project of all member states of the National Extension Homemakers Council, of which Kentucky is a very active member.

"It is to be our educational contribution to the 1976 Bicentennial," says Mrs. James Lowe, Nicholas County Cultural Arts chairman, "and we're proud to be a part of this informative book.
