Dear Debbie

Letters to DEBORAH WHITE. DEAR DEBBIE: My sister is in the process of divorcing my father by allowing him the luxury of turning into a slob.

CONCERNED SISTER

Your sister is in one of the most difficult family social situations known to modern civilization. The answer to this problem lies within your sister's ability to reach out and communicate with her children.

PERSONAL TO BETH: Let your boyfriend call you "square" and "old-fashioned."

If you have a problem, write to me in care of this newspaper. Personal replies aren't always possible, but I'll answer letters of widest interest in this column.

THE Courier-JOURNAL BARGAIN OFFER ENDS

MARCH 1, 1975. DEAR DISGUSTED: You sound like the kind of a man who believes in an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.
