ASSEMBLY LINE - 1975

Agree or Not

by S.C. Van Curen

FRANKFORT—There's an important unasked question hanging over state government concerning Lt. Gov. Julian Carroll when he takes over as acting governor when Gov. Wendell Ford takes the oath of office in his U.S. Senate seat Jan. 5.

The recession and shortages will have to be dealt with by Carroll for the next year, and he must be held responsible for these in that period, but how about money?

I dreamed I died and went to EPA heaven. It was a nightmare

I was rained on creek water and green apples polished clean on the seat of my britches on a farm polluted with cow beltings, Model A Ford exhaust and an outdoor fryer.

20 and 40 years ago

Thursday, January 6, 1955 At a meeting of the Carleisle Chamber of Commerce held last Wednesday, the following directors were elected: Ralph E. Shoener, W.L. Busler Jr., M.C. Blair, Ken Hooser, Warren R. Fisher, Lonnie Griffin, Joe Palitz, James W. Stover, Henry Allen Palmer, Dr. J. Morford, Nathan Young Jr. and Miss Emily Williams.

hour is only 14 times higher than it was 20 years ago. That's a story that is poorly told and not understood by those who are blaming the farmer for the high price.

Letters

To the Carleisle Mercury: This won't be written in my style of printing but you can rearrange it. Mr. Ford is fighting inflation in any way to raise the cost of food stamps which have been receiving since I am totally disabled.

Time to Look Ahead...

Time to set ourselves new goals and to direct our energies... material and spiritual... toward peace, prosperity and growth. May the New Year be a happy and productive one for all of us in the community... and in our beloved country.

Teach rather than give says agriculture spokesman

"The greatest contribution the United States and other developed countries could make toward alleviating world hunger would be to teach less fortunate societies how to produce enough agriculturally to feed themselves," said Phil Campbell, U.S. Under Secretary of Agriculture.
