Class A (44,000) and Class B (30,000) roads would not be increased.

"Now that the federal limit has been raised to 80,000 pounds, the Department of Transportation felt that keeping with the weight limit of the 1974 Kentucky General Assembly which was expressed in Senate Bill 311, it is proper that the weight limit be raised to 80,000 pounds on Kentucky Class AAA highways."

"Our engineering studies," added Patton, "have shown that increasing the allowable gross vehicle weight on our Class AAA highways to 80,000 pounds is justified by the strength, safety and durability of those highways."

Patton added that the weight limits on the state's Class AA (62,000 Pounds),

Registration at NCHS for adult education

Registration for second semester classes of the Nicholas County Adult Basic Education program will be Monday, Jan. 20 from 8 to 5 p.m. at the Nicholas County High School. Registration of age, level of education, or even if a person has been enrolled previously in the program he or she is still eligible for participation in the program. Emphasis is placed on the individual in Adult Basic Education. A student will work at a pace which meets his educational level, and can work as much as one hour in spare time. There is no time limit in completing the course.

Beverly (Bev) Yeiser, a Clark county farmer and agriculturalist, has announced as a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture in the Democratic primary. Yeiser, 46, a nationally known poultryman, operates Yeiser Incorporated, a major livestock operation at Winchester. He operates a 50-acre Clark county farm where he raises beef cattle and hogs. Yeiser is a former vocational agriculture teacher, having taught at Utica, in his native county of Daviess; at Sonora in Hardin county; and then at Clark county where he now resides. He is a graduate of Western Kentucky Teachers College (now Western Kentucky University) and did work on his Master's degree at the University of Kentucky.
