'75 National Farm Machinery Show

This coming Feb. 13-15, Kentucky Farm Machinery Show will get on an unusual show. Unusual because it's everybody. Everybody should be interested in it.

From the farmer in his farmhouse to the housewife who pays $1.75 for a bag of sugar, everybody has a stake in the show's 1966 debut.

The best of the 1975 National Farm Machinery Show is all about... This 1969 Annual Show has been put on two days last year, but this February they'll run daily.

This year's exhibitors will come from California and Connecticut, from many Florida to snowy South Dakota; 23 states in all.

A mail flyer that reached my desk last week proclaimed: "...with 49 keystroke... built-in digital timer... pocket calculator for 15-days free, only $29.00.

Enough said, my problems are dwarfed. They may still be repetitive but they're not new.

"Everybody keeps talking about the recession we're in," my wife said after reading the paper the other night.

"You wouldn't be including yourself in it," she asked. "Wouldn't it be better to say it's a very busy town?"
