Save with a cold check.

Think of the air in your refrigerator as money. You might as well, because you pay to make that air cold.

So check the door seals for air leaks. Don't keep doors open any longer than you need to. When frost becomes one quarter inch thick, be sure to defrost.

Electricity is money. Ask us how to save both.

Electricity is too good to waste!

FLEMINGSBURG—Everything is in readiness for the 27th Annual Meeting of Fleming-Mason Rural Electric Cooperative which will be held Thursday, July 17, at Flemingsburg. Registration of members will begin at 1:00 p.m. and the meeting will begin about 2:00 p.m.

Hinton Delaney, manager of the Cooperative, invites all members, their families and friends of the Cooperative to attend the meeting.

Each member who registers will receive a bucket of light bulbs, and also will have a chance to win one of 11 door prizes, including a choice of an electric range or refrigerator. Also a special annual report.

There will also be a registration for boys and girls for the drawing for a super-modern boy's and girl's bicycle. Hanford T. Moyer, Co-op president, also announced that two directors would be elected for three year terms and those nominated for election are Charles F. Hickerson, prominent Mason county farmer and dairyman and William F. Cooper, well known Bath county farmer.

Also featured again this year will be the popular "Miss Fleming-Mason RECC of 1975" contest at which time girls from the eight county area will vie for the honor of representing the Co-op at the State Beauty Pageant.

Miss Pamela Elaine Stacy, winner of last year's contest and second runner-up in the State Contest, will crown this year's winner. Food trailers this year will be in charge of the Ringo's Mill Methodist Church and the Tilton Christian Church.

Perhaps the best entertainment in years will be featured at this year's meeting with Country Music Hall of Fame winner Pee Wee King, Redd Stewart and the Collins Sisters, nationally known entertainers and Angela Wilcox and her Braves, one of the world's finest dog acts.

So, "you all come" and let's make the 1975 meeting the best in the 27 year old history of Fleming-Mason RECC.
