About 4500 persons attend Fleming-Mason RECC meet

FLEMINGSBURG—Despite the threat of a storm an estimated crowd of 4,500 members, their families and friends, attended the 37th annual meeting of Fleming-Mason RECC Thursday afternoon, July 17. The afternoon meeting held by the Co-operative was made as both a money and energy saving move.

Huston Delaney, manager of the Co-op stated that the attendance was normal for the 11,640 member Cooperative.

Mr. Delaney presided at the business session which included brief talks by Hansford T. Moyer, president and Mr. Delaney and a financial report by J.E. Smith Jr., secretary-treasurer. A printed annual report entitled "Facing Changes in the Way We Live", which included the Statement of Operations and Balance Sheet, was included in the traditional "bucket of bulbs" given all members who registered.

Marvin Suit, attorney for the Co-op, was in charge of the election, in which Charles Hickerson, of Mason county, was re-elected and William R. Cooper, of Bath county, was elected to succeed Albert Dicken, retired. Both were elected for three year terms as Directors.

As is the custom, an organizational meeting of the Board of Directors was held following the annual meeting with H.T. Moyer, of Mason county re-elected president; Charles Hickerson, also of Mason county, re-elected vice-president and James E. Smith Jr., of Fleming county, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Miss Mary Jo Purcell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Purcell, of Flemingsburg, Route 3, was selected as "Miss Fleming-Mason RECC of 1975" from a group of 10 contestants. Miss Purcell is a lovely 18 year old, brown haired, hazel eyed girl whose dimensions are 34-23-34. She is a graduate of Fleming County High where she was a member of the FHA; bulletin board chairman; second vice-president; the Teen Club and was recipient of a 4-H Scholarship. She was first runner-up in the Miss Fleming-Mason RECC contest in 1974; first runner-up in the Miss Hayseed Festival; first runner-up in the Miss Germantown Fair; and runner-up in the Dairy Princess Contest. Her hobbies are sewing, swimming and skating. Miss Purcell plans to enter Morehead State University and enter the field of nursing.

Runner-up for the title was Betty Fraley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Fraley, Maysville, Route 1. She is a 20 year old, blue eyed, red haired beauty with dimensions of 36-24-36. Miss Fraley attends Morehead State University where she is a member of the Junior Class. She is a member of The Maysville Players; director of a church choir, and the Bi-centennial Chorale. Her hobbies are swimming, sewing and working on the farm.

Miss Fleming-Mason RECC of 1975 received a sparkling crown, the coveted winner's sash, a $150 check for her wardrobe and an all-expense paid trip to Louisville for she and her parents. There she will represent the Co-op in the "Miss Kentucky RECC Pageant" to be held at Louisville. The winner there will represent the state in the "Miss Rural Electrification Beauty Pageant" to be held in Anaheim, Calif., Feb. 1-5, 1976.

The new Miss Fleming-Mason RECC of 1975 was crowned by Miss Pamela Elaine Stacy, "Miss Fleming-Mason RECC of 1974" and second runner-up in the State Contest last year.

Contestant entering from Nicholas county was Dianne Fryman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fryman, Carlisle, Route 3.

July 25-31, National Farm Safety Week

The nation's farmers and ranchers are being asked to observe Farm Safety Week, July 25-31. This is the 32nd consecutive observance of the annual national safety event, co-sponsored by the National Safety Council (NSC), and the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

In keeping with the week's theme, "Planning Prevents Accidents," farm workers are asked to review farm and home safety measures and plan ahead to prevent accidents.

Safety experts have learned over the years that accidents can be planned against by employing some simple spot-check inventory rules, by using the proper equipment for protection, and some good old-fashioned horse sense. Each year many farm workers are killed or seriously injured in preventable accidents. Planning in advance for a safe farm environment can help save the lives and health of these workers.

Begun in World War II, Farm Safety opened an attack on rural accidents that cut into crucial agricultural production and spearheaded a concerted effort in American farm communities to reduce accidents and resultant losses, injury and death. Farm Safety Week gives an excellent opportunity to review ways of eliminating safety hazards by planning for safer practices on each farm.

Today's farmer must be a specialist both in his approach to farm methods as well as safety. Lost days mean lost profits and a farmer by the very nature of his work, cannot easily regain lost time the way a manufacturing plant can.

NSC and USDA encourages farmers and ranchers to incorporate protective cabs or frames on older as well as newly purchased tractors; use personal protective equipment which could prevent or reduce the severity of a large part of agricultural injuries; build safe practices into the conduct of all daily activities; and work for safety every month of the year.

Gospel Sing at Christian Church

A lively program of Gospel Music will be presented at the Carlisle Christian Church Sunday night at 7:00 p.m. Pete and Pat Mitchell, well known Gospel Singers, from the Highland Heights Christian Church in Robinson, Ill., will lead the service. Sharing in the program will be their four children, Max, Monte, Marta and Mark. The youngsters will especially enjoy hearing the gospel presented by Max who is a gospel ventriloquist.

The church invites the public to attend this special service.

Harrison Rural Electric Cooperative re-elected re-elects two directors July 18

At the 37th annual meeting of members of Harrison Rural Electric Cooperative Friday, July 18, two directors, James S. Patterson of Harrison county and Harold W. Holmes of Pendleton county, were re-elected to serve on the Board for three years.

Miss Raye Jean Brooks of Bracken county was crowned "Miss Harrison RECC 1975" by the retiring "Miss Harrison RECC 1974" and "Miss Kentucky RECC" Janine Courts, of Bracken county. First runner-up in this selection was Miss Marilyn Joy Thompson of Peindleton county out of 10 entries.

Antioch Church had the most members present to register and was awarded the $30 on the church's electric bill.

The estimated attendance was 4,000 members and friends.
