Music anniversary attended by group

The 26th anniversary of the Annual All Night Gospel and Country Music Sing was held at the Big Barn in Rendro Valley on Saturday night.

Miss Soper weds Victor Bromagen

Mrs. Linda Kaye Soper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Soper of Millington, and Victor Lee Bromagen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bromagen of Lexington, were married on July 12 at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R.D. Audrey in Lexington in the presence of the immediate family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Hutchison Ramsey-Hutchison wedding solemnized in Baptist Church

Miss Debbie Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ramsey of Carlisle, became the bride of Lanny Hutchison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Hutchison, also of Carlisle.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a designer gown of white imported organza, enhanced with Alcon lace appliques, Sabrina sleeves, empire waist, Alcon silhouette and attached semi-cathedral train. Her mantilla headdress was floor length and lace strewn. She carried a bouquet of white roses and daisies, surrounded by white roses.

The groom, escorted by his father, wore a designer gown of white imported organza, enhanced with Alcon lace appliques, Sabrina sleeves, empire waist, Alcon silhouette and attached semi-cathedral train. Her mantilla headdress was floor length and lace strewn. She carried a bouquet of white roses and daisies, surrounded by white roses.

Central Baptist Church scene of recent wedding

Miss Willis Kay Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Sexton and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Leach, all of Bourbon county, and Mrs. Opal Sexton Hamilton and the late Rev. Station of Nicholas county, became the bride of Gary Alan Ralls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ralls and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Faulconer and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ralls of Paris, on July 26. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Cabine at the Central Baptist Church, Paris.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Victorian gown of white silk organza over silk tulle fastened with a lace yoke and long sleeves trimmed with seed pearls. Her cathedral length train was accented with appliqued flowers and seed pearls and bordered with Victorian lace. Her white veil was trimmed with matching lace. The bride carried a bouquet of white daisies, miniature carnations and baby's breath centered with a blue park on the Chasterton Road, Bourbon county.

Kay's Kitchen - By Kay Fisher - Includes a cartoon of a woman in a kitchen and a recipe for a summer luncheon.

What nice way to serve a summer luncheon than with a cool, quick, delicious soup. A delightful change from salads. Serve with assorted crackers or sandwiches.
