J. Bruce Miller named Democratic legal counsel

FRANKFORT—State Democratic Chairman Howard "Sonny" Hunt has announced that Jefferson County Attorney J. Bruce Miller has been named Legal Counsel for the Kentucky Democratic Party.

"Miller will assume the post, formerly held by Thomas C. Carroll, also of Louisville, immediately. Both men are partners in the law firm of Carroll, Miller and Conliffe.

In announcing Miller's appointment, Hunt said, "Bruce Miller brings the unique combination of youth and experience to the Democratic Party leadership. This behind the scenes drafting and interpreting of party rules and regulations is a vital party function."

Miller, who was first elected Jefferson County Attorney in 1969, has been active in Democratic Party politics for several years. He is treasurer of the Kentucky County Attorney Association.
