Kay's Kitchen

— — By Kay Fisher

Back again this week with bits and pieces from the Kay's Kitchen letter box. It not only is helping me get some semblance of order on my desk but from comments, several readers enjoyed the recipes, and "I like that."

For chocolate pie lovers here is a delicious one and saves one baking time. Instead of meringue it is topped with whipped cream—or you may use a prepared whipped topping, if you are counting calories.

SUMMER CHOCOLATE PIE

1 cup sugar
½ cup unsifted flour
2 cups milk
3 egg yolks
3 squares (each 1 ounce) unsweetened chocolate, broken in half
4 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
1 tablespoon butter
9-inch baked pastry shell
½ cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons confectioners sugar

In the top part of a double boiler stir together the sugar and flour; gradually stir in 1½ cups of the milk, keeping smooth. In a small mixing bowl beat egg yolks with remaining ½ cup milk and add, to sugar mixture; add chocolate. Cook over simmering water, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove from heat. Stir in 1 teaspoons of the vanilla and the butter. Cool slightly. Pour into pastry shell. Refrigerate overnight to allow filling to set. Just before serving, whip cream with confectioners sugar and remaining 1 teaspoon vanilla; spread over pie.

Here is a salad for only the best of eyes to enjoy seafood. However, it is made with canned shrimp which I usually have on my pantry shelf. The other ingredients most everyone would have on hand. It makes a pretty, tasty salad for a summer buffet or just to serve those who enjoy the flavor of shrimp.

SHRIMP SALAD MOLD

1 envelope plain gelatin dissolved in ¼ cup cold water. Heat 1 can tomato soup, stir in 1 large pkg. cream cheese. Add gelatin and stir until smooth. Cool. Add 1 cup salad dressing, 1 cup chopped celery, ½ cup green pepper, ¼ cup chopped onion and two cans of shrimp, drained. Mix well. Pour into mold. You may use a ring mold and fill center with cottage cheese. Sprinkle with paprika. Or use a fish mold or any solid mold and surround with quartered hard boiled eggs.

I do use salad dressing in making this salad because it is more tart than mayonnaise. However, you may use mayonnaise, but add a bit of lemon juice.

Somewhere along the line it seems I had a request for Vinegar Pie. I did run a vinegar pie recipe at one time but this one is a little different.

VINEGAR PIE

2 cups vinegar
1 cup water
1½ cups sugar
½ cup flour
dash of salt

Combine sugar, flour and salt. Gradually add the combined vinegar and water. Cook until thickened. Pour into baked pie shell. Cover with meringue made with three egg whites and six or seven tablespoons of sugar and one teaspoon vanilla. Bake until lightly brown at 325 degrees.
