Kay's Kitchen

— — By Kay Fisher — — —

Continuing with recipes from the United Dairy Industry Association for June Dairy month, this appealed to me.

If the main course is a delightful salmon mold, garnished with sliced cucumbers and tomatoes, it can be made in advance to avoid last minute rushing. This recipe has Scandinavian inspiration in its use of the fish itself, as well as the sour cream and dill weed. Whipped cream is used in the combination to give what we usually call a "mousse" because of its light and airy texture.

Lemon juice adds lively tang to the recipe while Cheddar cheese contributes a surprise ingredient plus extending the protein.

DILLED SALMON MOLD

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup cold water
1 can (16-oz.) salmon, drained, flaked
¼ cup lemon juice
1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
1 cup dairy sour cream
1 teaspoon grated onion
½ teaspoon dill weed
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup whipping cream, whipped

Soften gelatin in cold water; dissolve over low heat. Toss salmon with lemon juice. Fold in cheese, sour cream, onion and seasonings. Stir in gelatin. Fold in whipped cream. Pour into lightly oiled 6-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on serving platter; garnish as desired. 8 to 10 servings.

Serve with Poppyseed rolls, ice cream topped with fresh berries, and your favorite cookies.

For a picnic or porch supper the recipe for chicken drumsticks sounds easy and promises an unusual flavor.

CRUNCHY DRUMSTICKS

12 chicken drumsticks
6 tablespoons butter, melted
½ cup pretzel crumbs
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
1 teaspoon paprika
1/8 teaspoon pepper

Brush chicken with butter. Coat with combined crumbs, Parmesan cheese and seasonings. Place in buttered 13x9-inch baking pan. Drizzle any remaining butter over chicken. Bake in a preheated 375 degree oven, 55 to 60 minutes or until tender. Makes 6 servings.

The recipe doesn't mention it but it may be advisable to turn the chicken once or twice while baking.

MIDWAY SPECIAL

2 cups (8 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste
¾ teaspoon garlic salt
½ teaspoon oregano leaves, crushed
8 frankfurter buns, split
8 frankfurters, split lengthwise

Combine cheese, tomato paste and seasonings; mix well. Spread on buns. Place buns and frankfurters on broiler pan on oven rack 4 to 5 inches from heat. Broil 5 to 7 minutes or until frankfurters are heated and cheese begins to melt. Serve frankfurters in buns. 8 servings.

BUTTER BAKED PEACHES

¼ cup butter, melted
2 tablespoons orange juice
1 can (30 oz.) peach halves, drained
½ cup crushed sugar coated corn flakes
½ cup whipping cream, whipped
1 teaspoon sugar

Pour combined butter and orange juice into 10x6x1¾-inch baking dish. Coat peaches with crumbs; place in baking dish. Bake in a preheated 400 degree oven, 15 minutes. Cool. Serve peaches and butter mixture in individual dessert dishes. Top with combined cream and sugar. 6 to 8 servings.

Ready for a heated discussion?

You waste money every time you misuse your electric range.

If you use a burner larger than needed, you waste money and electricity. If you leave a burner on after you've finished with it, you waste money and electricity. If you leave the oven door open while the oven is on . . . well, you get the idea.

There are a lot of ways to keep your electric bill down while you're in the kitchen. Ask us how.

Electricity is too good to waste!
