

Baptist women to meet Food stamp changes set

The Baptist Young Women Missionary group will meet Monday, June 23 with Mrs. Dan Rich, Lake Carriso, Section C-3. This will be a Prayer Retreat beginning with a pot luck picnic at 5:30 p.m. followed by potluck rides and a prayer program on the lake, if weather permits.

In case of rain the meeting will still be held at the Rich's cottage. Mrs. Rich is W.M.U. director of the First Baptist Church of Carlisle.

Mrs. Ronald Howard, president of B.Y.W.M. encourages all Baptist Women ages 18 through 30, married or single, to attend.

Mrs. Larry McKee will be program leader.

Three enter Pro-Am golf tournament

David Zachary, Lyle Anderson, and Ralph Shearer played in the Boy Scouts of America Pro-Am Golf Tournament Monday, held at the Tate's Creek Country Club in Lexington.

The First National Bank of Carlisle sponsored the local golfers. Shearer won best cover for winning fourth place in his flight.

Three amateurs played with a pro in each foursome. Following the benefit tournament, a clinic and dinner were held. Entry into the tournament was by invitation only.

Galbraith honored by Group Banks

Stan Galbraith of the National Bank of Paris was selected Operation Officer of the Year by the Kentucky Group Banks recently. The determining factor for Galbraith's recognition was his continued efforts toward coordinating bank operations.

Galbraith was presented with his award at a convention held for Kentucky Group Bank officers at Park Mammoth Resort.

Galbraith is a former resident of Carlisle, and son of Mrs. Jimmy Galbraith and the late Mr. Galbraith.
