The malpractice racket

There can be no doubt but that some of the greatest career-ruff rackets in the United States are the so-called "malpractice" law suits. Malpractice lawyers are getting rich at the expense of the public...

FRANKFORT—The Senate-passed federal strip-off tax bill poses a host of problems for the Kentucky coal industry, one of which is an increase in liability...

The above would be the minimum tax, but utility coal in Kentucky is now selling for 18 to 20 dollars per ton. The four per cent tax on this puts the tax on coal for the union's health and welfare fund, the direct tax on coal is beyond $2.00 per ton in Kentucky...
