Nursing home news

by Virginia Smith Donovan

The housekeepers must be rich, for they all wear gold jackets.

Mrs. Helen Fisher says she is so glad that all of her children are now living in Kentucky.

Mrs. Ruby Litzinger comes from Bracken county and visits her father Russell Herrington very often.

Wanda Tincher's mother, Mrs. Ruby George, is a nurse's aid here. They talk alike and look alike, both are very industrious.

Wednesday night we were invited into the chapel for a program by the Mt. Zion Christian Church. Miss Lavina McFarland was the mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Billie Weathers brother, Bruce Campbell came to see her recently. Never did get any report about his old hens. He said a big bird dog which he had been offered $500 for had died. I believe if I remember right he and another dog were in a fight and the bird dog of Bruce's was killed.

There is a new boy working here. His name is Ricky Hughes. He lives out on the Suggs Road. He is a good worker. He's been mowing the lawn, also doing some cleaning in the hall.

This Sunday, May 11th will be Mother's Day. It is also Nursing Home Week. I have spent many hours in nursing homes in the last few years. My mother spent eight years in nursing homes. Our government has smiled on all of us by giving us a monthly income. The meals are well cooked and well balanced.

Many times older people are not physically able to care for themselves. You have heard people say, "looks like so and so would not have sent his or her mother to the nursing home. Because she wanted her taken care of is why she sent her to a home. The people there have been trained to care for older people.

Don't forget your mother on Mother's Day or any other day.

Homemakers meet Thursday

The Moorefield Homemakers met May 1 at the home of Mrs. Jimmy Conrad, with Mrs. Tommy Workman and Mrs. Angus Jacobs, co-hostesses.

The meeting was called to order with Mrs. Joe Smart, presiding, substituting for Mrs. Hanson Ellington.

Mrs. J.S. Wilson gave the devotional. Twenty-two members answered roll call with "A Helpful Hint for Housecleaning." Mrs. James Hamm gave the business and treasurer's report. Mrs. W.J. Clark gave out leaflets on "Family Life." Mrs. Pauline Clark, Issues and Concerns chairman gave her report. Report was given on number of garments made by each member throughout the year. Mrs.

Mike Jones gave an interesting lesson on "Dried Flower Arrangements", displaying a number of arrangements. After the meeting adjourned, refreshments were served by Mrs. Conrad, Mrs. Workman and Mrs. Jacobs.

The next meeting will be June 5 at the home of Mrs. Frank Weaver, with Mrs. Everette Smoot co-hostess.

LOWE'S FARMSTEAD POLE BARNS
Each of these barns measures 24' x 24' and can be used in a number of different ways around the farm. They're ideal for equipment storage . . . for livestock . . . hay or grain storage . . . as stall barns . . . or just as all-purpose storage buildings. The poles are pressure-treated and measure 6' x 16', while the rest of the lumber measures 2"x 8" x 12'—also pressure-treated. Each style building may be finished with either Alcoa temper rib aluminum roofing or galvanized steel roofing. And each package includes all the building materials (except concrete) necessary to build your particular Farmstead pole barn.
