We have an air conditioner that we pressed into service Monday, when indoor temperatures began to climb.
Having turned it off at 5 p.m. we later received a call from our neighbor Mrs.

To The Carlisle Mercury:
As 1 have moved from Cedarville, Ohio to Springfield, Ohio, 1 want you to mail the paper to me. 1 have received The Mercury from the year of 1918, and don't want to give it up for that is the way I hear from all of my friends from good old Nicholas county.

To The Carlisle Mercury: I would like to inform you that I have moved back to Kentucky from California. I have been a bother in the to me. I have received mit beyond 1918, and mit beyond 1918 and mit better the past about changing my address so may be a so countly.

by Tony Ritchie's long fly. But that was to be the only offensive productivity for the afternoon for Nicholas County. The third inning began the shift of the game to the Bourbon County side. Steve game to the Bourbon County side. Steve Frederick began by drawing a base on balls. Then Randy Gabler pounded a triple to give Frederick the boost across the plate. Proc Blair took advantage of the piate. Proc Blair took advantage of the situation and pushed Gabler across for another score and the Colonels were suddenly right on the Jackets heels. A costly error at the top of the fourth inning was the incentive for the tying run to cross the plate, then when Randy
