THE RIGHT HONDA SUMMER SAVINGS TIME.

HONDA Good things happen on a Honda. HONDA OF FLEMINGSBURG Flemingburg, Ky. 717 Elizaville Avenue

Dear Debbie... DEBORAH WHITE

DEAR DEBBIE: My wife recently turned to me and said, 'Sorry, Honey, but I just don't have the time to do it. She told them she wanted to get a job so she could feel worthwhile. How about motherhood? Isn't that worthwhile? Oh, my kids are both in school now, but we're still a family. My wife said she was cooking for me for 18 years. There are many dishes she makes that I don't think I can live without. When I do go to work, I get a hot meal on the table.

DEAR POPS: You seem to be more upset about losing a cook than about losing a wife. To begin with, you better start realizing that the hand that put the meal in front of you every night for 18 years was attached to something a human being can feel. Maybe you can't feel 'worthwhile.' I can't make her come back to you if she's a good cookbook.

DEAR DEBBIE: We're the parents of two of those runaway kids who are making so much about in the late sixties. Our little girl who you used to love and thankfulness. Now she's 19 and since her return she has slowly moved in her attitude to an almost unrecognizable person. She doesn't like to smoke, she wears no makeup and she's honest every night after work. She's a very nice, she chatters us for what she calls 'lilly babies' smoking and drinking. We want her to be happy, but we don't want her detaching to us how we should be. What really worries us is that she'll leave again if we do anything to upset her.

DEAR PAPA FRANK: You sound like the man who wants to sit his son up to get a job. You open his mouth, Your daughter is home again, it is necessary that we take a step to protect our property and welfare. Dig's Walk, 1125-75 Park Road, 9-18-75.
