Industrial site brochure for City

An Industrial Site Brochure for Carlsle has been prepared by the Kentucky Utilities Company with the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce. This brochure has been distributed to people who work directly with industry seeking new locations.

Included in this brochure are top maps of the area, showing sites available for industry, and other data of interest to prospective industries. According to Donald C. Perkins, local manager, Kentucky Utilities Company, this information has recently been brought up to date, keeping Carlsle a competitive position for new industry.

Mayor William Powers personally wrote letters, which are included in this booklet, expressing the willingness of Carlsle to cooperate with anyone interested in Carlsle as a location for new industry.

The Industrial Development Department of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, Kentucky Department of Commerce, railroads and utility companies serving the area have reviewed copies of this booklet for their use in contacting prospects for industry.

Families visit Methodist Home

A number of families of the Carlsle United Methodist Church journeyed to Versailles on Sunday evening, Aug. 15 for a picnic on the grounds of the Methodist Home there.

Following the picnic a tour was given the group by workers and residents of the home. This facility for children and youth is operated by the Louisville area of the United Methodist Church. Mrs. Marshall Stone, chairman of the Wesleyan Circle, presented 10 bed sheets on behalf of the circle for use by the home.

When you think of pests, think of me.

I can get the termites out of your house. And the ants, cockroaches, spiders or mice. And keep them out. I can get any pest out of your house (except maybe your in-laws). I'm Bob Davis, the Carlsle Terminix man. Call me collect-LEXINGTON 252-5484.
