Mrs. Lettie O'Bannon's Special Education Class is studying a unit on money, and they have turned their classroom into a grocery store. There are cardboard boxes for shelves. The children brought empty food boxes and cans for grocery items. A grocery cart was loaned, and a cash register was constructed. They are learning about taxable and non-taxable items, and how to add up the purchases. The children are, from left, counter-clockwise, Harry Mitchell, Sissy Mayberry, Ricky Bretz, Phoe Farrow, Timmy Mayberry, and at cash register, Judy Burke.—Duncan photo
