Mason visits Yugoslavia

Navy Fireman Robert R. Mason Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Mason Sr., of Moorefield, recently visited Rijeka, Yugoslavia, while serving aboard the destroyer USS Sigbee.

During the week-long goodwill visit, he and his shipmates toured the local athletic events with their hosts. This marked the first time in three years that a U.S. Navy ship had visited Rijeka.

His ship, presently deployed with the U.S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean, is homeported in Mayport, Fla. A former student of Nicholas County High School, he joined the Navy in July 1974.

In 1946 Willard Jilison and Victor Doge made new excavations near the main Blue Lick Springs and discovered many bone specimens, including a fine tank. They were placed in the park museum at Blue Lick Battlefield State Park.

Jr. Woman's Club meets Feb. 9

The Carlisle Junior Woman's Club (KWOC) met Monday, Feb. 9, at the library. Mrs. Kenneth Hill opened the meeting with a poetry selection, "The Soul's Breath."

Clubwomen and student entries for the KWOC Eighth District literary, music, art and craft competition was discussed. This contest will be held at Morehead State University.

The Junior Club voted at this meeting to sponsor a mini beauty pageant. Young ladies in Nicholas county and neighboring counties will compete for the title of "Little Miss Spring." Four divisions will be involved, ages 3-5, ages 6-7 and ages 8-9.

Proceeds from entry fees, admission charge and raffle ticket sales will benefit children's charities sponsored by the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs. These are the Burns Institute and Institute for the Blind in Louisville and Cardinal Hill Children's Hospital in Lexington. More detailed information on the pageant will be announced at a later date.
