DePauw student gains experience

Richard D. Stang, the second of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Stang of St. Petersburg, Fla., spent the month of January at Forest Retreat Farm as part of his studies at DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind.

Spends month at Forest Retreat

Forest Retreat Guest House was a visitor at the farm. "You could say that I was going into it every blindly," he wrote, "There were some objectives I did have in mind. I wanted to know about farm life, specifically, the duties needed to maintain the farm, the care of horses, what keeps them healthy, what about they need, what they eat, and many other necessities. I also hoped to watch a veterinarian in action; what he does and what procedures he uses." Stang wants to be a veterinarian.

Giant Outboards Top The News The big news at the recent boat show, held in Louisville, was the huge outboard engines on display. A few years ago, a 50 or 70 horse motor was considered a monster. Now, Johnson and Evinrude, both, have unveiled a colossal engine rated at a 200 horsepower.
