Gov.'s State of Commonwealth address highlights Legislature's first week

Prepared by the Legislative Research Commission Staff. A speech by Gov. Julian M. Carroll promising a "prudent fiscal posture" for the coming two years highlighted the first week of the 1976 Kentucky General Assembly session.

Immediate improvements in Kentucky's court system. Senate Bill 80, passed unanimously and approved by the House, requires fiscal courts in each county to continue to furnish circuit courts and circuit judges with salaries, facilities, and financial support they had received from the fiscal courts prior to Jan. 1.

Among bills introduced during the first week was House Bill 200, Representative Raymond Overstreet, R-Liberty, to require surface water, groundwater and reclamation plans before the state may grant a permit to divert water.

*****NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE. By Clair R. Pollan. If your birthday occurs this week... you are a sincere person. Your thoughts are broad and you're able to carry any burden. You do not accept too much responsibility, but when you do you acquire yourself creditable success.

Calorie Countdown. BY SUSAN DUFF MASTRO. Here by cutting the bread into twice as many, or 36, slices. Darker varieties of bread are not necessarily lower in calories or higher in nutrient value as many believe, but if you prefer them for taste value, a one-pound loaf of crusted whole bread (18 slices per loaf) has 65 calories per slice, the same number of slices per pound as a one-pound loaf of white bread.
