

Kay's Kitchen

— by Kay Fisher

Since I don't seem to be as organized as I should be, some requests have not been answered. I could blame it all on the idea of things but because I don't solve anything. So I'll start this week and only promise to try harder to answer your requests.

The one using saccharin in making jams and jellies. Have looked, asked and written numerous persons about this but no answer. However, I'm still working on it and hopefully can come up with something before the jelly making time is here.

Last week Kay's Kitchen had a recipe for Salmon Patties. Now I remember the request was for Salmon Loaf. You can use the pattie recipe for a loaf if you wish. Just pack lightly in a greased loaf pan and bake about 30 minutes. Or here is a good loaf recipe you might like:

SALMON LOAF WITH DILL
2 cups canned salmon
1 can 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 cup chopped onion, celery, green pepper, milk

1/4 cup fresh bread crumbs
1 egg
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/4 cup finely chopped parsley
1 teaspoon fresh dill, chopped or 1 teaspoon dried dill
Freshly ground pepper, to taste
Put salmon, bone and skin removed, in mixing bowl. In saucepan melt butter and cook onion, celery, and green pepper until crisp-tender. Add bread crumbs, salmon, liquid, and enough milk to make a light loaf.
Fork-beat egg with lemon juice, parsley, dill, salt and pepper. Combine with salmon. Place mixture in buttered loaf pan and bake in oven preheated to 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Unmold and serve with lemon wedges. It is also good served cold with cucumbers marinated in sour cream and dill.

CONGEELED PEACH SALAD
2 small packages peach jelly
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
1 (8 oz.) package cream cheese
1/4 cup whipped cream
1 cup chopped celery
